DANGER ON FARM

The Claim Made by Farmer Who Death of Caleb Chase, of Chase Wants His Agreement Cancelled.

Toronto, Nov. 25 .- The Star tonight

A. F. Lobb, K. C., solicitor for the hydro-electric power commission, was served today with the statement of claim in the action brought by Walter Dec. 11, 1831, being the son of Job and Death, farmer, of Toronto Township, Peel County, against the commission.

down. In his statement of claim, Death says in part: The defendants, among other fraudulent representations, represented to dinary way, and that the value of his farm would not be depreciated there-

The defendants fraudulently represented that the power line would be perfectly safe and harmless, and that giver himself seemed to enter into there would be no damage to property or danger to persons.

The plaintiff, when he signed the and did not understand the import and meaning of the agreement. Since signing the contract the plaintiff has learned that the line will be a high tension line of 110,000 volts unfenced and unprotected, with wires West Harwich its library building, and hanging down from the cross-arms without any safety device of any kind of his farm. The defendants concealed the facts in regard to the line to be built and ger of high tension electric wire at 110,000 voltage, such as is intended to be constructed, he would never have entered into said agreement.

The defendants, their servants, or agents, as they intended, did by their misrepresentations induce the plaintiff to enter into said contact. The plaintiff alleges that the right to enter upon his lands, and the possession to be given, are too indefinite and vague, and that the line is not such a line as the defendants are authorized or empowered to build. Death asks for an injunction to ke the commission off his land, and that the agreement be cancelled. D. O. Cameron, of Toronto, is acting for Death.

LEADING BOSTON FROM POWER LINE? MERCHANT PASSES

& Sanborn, the Coffee Merchants.

Boston, Nov. 25 .- Mr. Caleb Chase. a leading Boston merchant, senior member of the firm of Chase & Sanborn, Boston and Montreal, died at his home, in Brookline, Nov. 23.

He was born in Harwich, Mass., on Phoebe (Winslow) Chase. He was educated in the Harwich schools, and was in his father's general store until Death signed an agreement whereby he reached the age of twenty-four. He the commission's towers and wires then came to Boston, entering the emwere to have right-of-way for thirty ploy of Anderson, Sargent & Co., a years, and in return for which Death leading drygoods house. He was with should receive $60 in all, $20 a tower this firm five years, travelling for them for two towers, and $20 for trees cut on Cape Cod and in the west, and in 1859 he made a connection with the wholesale grocery house of Claffin, Saville & Co. In 1864 he began business for himthe plaintiff that the only portion of & Raymond, which in 1871 became self, forming the firm of Carr, Chase the lands which would be used by the Chase, Raymond & Ayer, and in 1877, defendants, would be an area of 16 was merged into the present firm of feet square, where each tower would Chase & Sanborn. Owing to ill-health be erected, and that all the balance of the active management of the business the lands could be cropped in the or- of late years has been assumed by his partners. Mr. Chase will be long remembered for his benefactions. There was a personal element in his public and charitable gifts; something of the each

He kept an active interest in his native town as long as he lived, and contract, did not obtain legal advice, Harwich owes much to his public spirit. At his personal expense he improved Harwich Harbor, including the building of the sea wall. He contributed largely to the betterment of the roads in the town, gave to another building for a town hall. He gave liberally to his own Baptist to support them, and will be in a high degree dangerous to life and property churches in the town, irrespective of Church in Harwich, and to other denomination. To the Brookline schools he gave a fund for the purpose of placing in the school rooms copies of misrepresented the nature of said line, More recently he gave to the Boston Salvation Army $15,000 for its People's Place, the main hall of which is named in his honor, "Caleb Chase Hall." Mr. Chase's private charity was endless. It was said of him that he could never resist the appeal of misery or distress. It is quite certain that there are literally thousands who will remember his generosity and personai sympathy in times of adversity.

Mr. Chase belonged to the Algonquin Club, and was an enthusiastic member of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery. He was one of the 173 members who went to England in 1896, and when the London Ancients came to Boston in 1903, he was an important factor in making the visit of the Englishmen a memorable one.

He was married in 1864 to Miss Salome Boyle, of Thurston, Maine, who survives him.

CAN AMEND STATEMENT

New Turn to Dispute With the Ontario and Western Railway Company. Toronto, Nov. 25 .- Leave to amend its statement of defense has been granted the St. Marys and Western Ontario Railway in the action brought against it by John E. Webb, a contractor. Webb alleges that he was squeezed out on the contract of builang the road, and claimed that he was ntitled to $30,000. He assigned his claim to the Bank of Nova Scotia in November, 1906. The railway moved before the master-in-chambers to have the Bank of Nova Scotia added as a plaintiff or for leave to amend the statement of defense. Leave to amend is given, the master-in-chambers thinking it necessary in order to avoid double litigation. PENITENTIARY OFFICER
