

LACE-TRIMMED HAT IS THE LATEST VOGUE

The keynote of fashionable head wear is lace, as shown in photograph. The hat should be of dark straw to form an effective background for the delicate tracery of the lace. In the hat above, dark blue straw is trimmed and rimmed with white Irish lace. A pouf of fluffy white feathers completes the coiffure.

CHAPTER XXV.

The Words on the Stone.

When Val R. Montague came to the point in his story at which he was present at the death of Richmond Carrington, he paused, and looked around him with a look of intense interest. It was a dramatic moment, and both the natural temperament and professional training made him conscious of the importance of the scene. He was standing in the middle of a large room, the walls of which were covered with maps and charts. The room was dimly lit, and the atmosphere was one of mystery and suspense. Montague looked at the body of the dead man, and then at the face of the woman who was standing by his side. She was looking at him with a look of intense interest, and he felt that she was trying to read his mind. He knew that she was a woman of great power, and he felt that she was trying to use her power to control him. He knew that she was a woman of great power, and he felt that she was trying to use her power to control him. Comfort Lye will clean that dirty cellar floor for you. Or, when the kitchen floor looks as if "some good hard scrubbing" is needed, put just a little Comfort Lye in the water, and you won't have to scrub. Comfort Lye "makes dirt run" so you can simply mop it up.

Removes Paint. Take off the old paint with Comfort Lye. Far easier than scraping or blistering.

Of Interest To Women

What One Girl Wants to Know

Dear Miss Grey:—(1) How should a young girl wear her hair? (2) How long should her dresses be? (3) How can I make a light hair switch darker to match my hair? (4) Please send me a letter to a boy. (5) I have been going with a young man for seven months. He comes to see me. Do you think he loves me? (6) How should a 14-year-old girl wear her hair? (7) Will colored hair be worn this summer? (8) How should a girl start a letter to a boy? (9) Dear So-and-So, or My Dear So-and-So. (10) Is it proper for a married woman who was a very popular girl before she was married, to stop on the street and talk for a few minutes to a gentleman who was one of the many beaux she had when single? (11) What will get rid of bedbugs? (12) If she is well developed, should she wear her hair in the prevailing style for young women. (13) From 4 to 6 inches from the floor. (14) By using a reliable dye. I do not advise it, however, for amateur efforts at failure. Better take it to a professional. (15) Thursday. (16) He probably admires you, else he would not come so often. (17) If he proposes and you accept, you will be quite likely married. (18) Parted, rolled at the sides, braided in one or two braids and tied with white ribbon. (19) Yes. (20) Entirely proper. (21) Locate places where the rats go into the house and fill deeply with absorbent cotton, moistened with formaldehyde. Immediately use disinfectant with plaster of paris. (22) Take furniture out of doors and scour with hot suds. Then cover with a gasolene-soaked cloth. (23) Use gasolene and kerosene oil in crevices where the pests hide. Use gasolene and kerosene oil in crevices where the pests hide. Use gasolene and kerosene oil in crevices where the pests hide.

Correspondence

Edited by Cynthia Grey.

Dear Miss Grey: How is "Cracker-jack" made? A.—Melt two cups granulated sugar over the fire until it forms a dark syrup. Add butter size of a walnut, and two tablespoons molasses. Let boil up and pour over freshly popped corn. Stir well.

Dear Miss Grey: What will cure offensive perspiration of the body, especially of the feet? A.—Baths the body twice daily, and powder with ordinary cornstarch. After the bath at night, rub the body well with alcohol. Change underwear and hose daily, and air the shoes at night in open window.

Dear Miss Grey: Which would you advise me to marry for, love or riches? A.—Love, if you want to be happy.

Dear Miss Grey: Is it proper for a girl of 17 to correspond with a man she has never met, and to send her photograph to him? A.—READER. A.—Emphatically, no.

Dear Miss Grey: Is it proper to thank a young man who takes you to an entertainment? A.—Certainly.

RECIPES

In Buying Potatoes.

In buying potatoes for cooking those that have been grown in light, loamy soil are best. Measurability is the desideratum for potatoes. The best are those which, when baked, are soft and fluffy. The rather small, hard and waxy yellow potatoes, in general the yellow ones, are not so digestible. In addition to the commonplace methods of preparing potatoes, such as baking, boiling and frying, with their variations, there are any number of little culinary tricks and turnings which may be introduced to give the dish the appearance at least, of a decided change in its presentation.

Banana Recipes.

A simple pudding is made from a custard of yolks of 3 eggs to a quart of milk, slightly sweetened. When the custard is thick, cream is poured over thin slices of banana in a pudding dish. Put meringue of whites or eggs on top and brown slightly in oven. Serve cold with cream. Sliced bananas mixed with cornstarch just before it stiffens and served with fresh strawberry sauce are delicious.

Baked bananas are sometimes used as a vegetable. Peel and cut in half lengthwise. Divide in two. To each banana, allow a tablespoonful of sugar, 2 tablespoonfuls each of lemon juice and melted butter and a pinch of salt.

WOMAN RIDES THE BUMPERS.

There was a negro woman in Dover who wouldn't think of paying railroad fare between that place and this city, says the Mayville (N.Y.) Bulletin. She came along and boards it with the same ease as does a brakeman or a professional hobo, and rides the bumper. She makes the round trip from Dover and return and does it quite frequently.

BEAUTY QUERIES ANSWERED

Scales in Eyebrows.

W. H.—Keep the cream I am giving you, on the eyebrows night and day, possible until the condition you mention is entirely cured. Use a wash cloth when bathing your face to avoid setting water on the brows until the cure. Color: 1/2 dram; sulphur, 1 dram; Oil of Cedar, 1/2 dram; rose ointment sufficient to make one ounce.

Lines at Mouth and Eyes.

W. F. Smith—The directions for the treatment you require are rather lengthy to print today, as we have so many to answer. If you will send me a self-addressed, stamped envelope and repeat your question, I will at once mail you printed directions for facial massage and treatment.

Pine Needle Baths.

R. B. M.—Buy a quart of pine needles from any drugstore, tie them in a muslin bag; place this in your bath tub and cover with boiling water. Let stand for five minutes, then add the water sufficiently to be comfortable and it is ready for your use.

Auburn Hair.

Miss Auburn—Your hair can be darkened by a dye, but I would never advise using one. Auburn hair is as pretty as well as unusual, you should be proud of it. Sweet oil will darken it slightly.

The largest 25c. tin of the finest grade Talcum Powder contains about double the quantity of powder in usual size packages.

It's a Great Big Bargain

Highly prized by persons of refinement because it is antiseptic as well as absorbent and cooling. For chafing, rash, prickly heat and all hot weather discomforts it is by far the most convenient of toilet requisites. Insist on getting Royal Vinolia Talcum.

EVERY mother should insist on having Royal Vinolia Talcum for her baby's delicate skin. It is soothing and bland beyond words. Does not enter the tiny pores of baby's skin to clog and irritate them. The same qualities which bring delight and satisfaction to older persons makes the baby as fresh and cool and fragrant as a flower.

FINE ORIENTAL EMBROIDERY

Devotees of the embroidery needle will be pleased to learn and put to good use the new wrinkle of the two-sided embroidery. The design, in either case, can be enhanced by showing both sides of the embroidery showing up equally well. The reverse side of the needle work is a decided point of patience and a little trouble to acquire accuracy in the stitches, but then one is rewarded in being able to do the National Review, a publication issued from Shanghai, China. The periodical is manifestly a "China for the Chinese" organ, and its forces warmly attack Japan, Russia and the other powers that are encroaching on Chinese sovereign rights. All the chief embassies of the world seem to be summed up in this cover design—official greed and incompetent foremen, exploiting newspapers, despotic foreigners, amateur jumpers and others of the ilk. The device is described as follows in the Review: Arms—Quarterly: First, on a ground of blue, a red banner with the words "SINCE 1911" in white; second, on a ground of red, a blue banner with the words "SINCE 1911" in white; third, on a ground of white, a blue banner with the words "SINCE 1911" in white; fourth, on a ground of white, a blue banner with the words "SINCE 1911" in white; fifth, on a ground of white, a blue banner with the words "SINCE 1911" in white;
