SCHEME LIMITED TO HORIZON OF NATIONS SURELY INADEQUATE

Prof. H. T. Coleman Addresses London Teachers.

HUMANITY GIFT OF GOD

In Ignoring This Fact Germany Has Brought About Her Downfall.

"Any scheme of work is inadequate which limits itself to the horizon of the nation," declared Professor H. T. J. Coleman, B.A., Ph. D., dean of the faculty of education of Queen's University, today, addressing the London Teachers' Association in the Ryerson School Auditorium.

"Germany," he continued, "is the monumental instance of a country which has failed in greatness because it has failed to supplement the ideal of nationality, national genius and national service with the ideal of world unity, genius and service."

"Philologists tell us that the national idea of Germany was born in the very derivation of 'Deutsch,' of which the meaning was 'The Men.' In this, the fact was ignored that humanity is the essential gift of God."

"The fundamental studies recognize but slightly national boundaries. They transcend national bonds.

Knowledge the Basis.
"National ideals are necessary and knowledge is one basis of patriotism. We are beginning to consider study carefully to see what particular subjects will contribute the most to the promotion of good citizenship."

"Habit is another basis of patriotism, and one problem which we are to be obliged to consider is that of military training. We will be obliged to arrive at a decision whether or not the school furnishes the basis for the inculcation of habits for the protection of the nation in time of stress."

Initiative Essential.
Concerning the equipment of the teacher, the speaker declared initiative to be the one indispensable qualification.

"If you haven't initiative," he said, "all wealth of equipment all scholarship, will turn to dust and ashes. There is a serious danger for you in that you are so well equipped, the danger that you may come to regard yourselves as perfect in your own particular line of endeavor and have no further need of study and self-culture."

Commenting upon the address of Prof. Coleman, Principal G. F. Rogers of the Collegiate Institute, president of the Teachers' Association, expressed the opinion with considerable fervor that teachers should have more opportunity for using initiative.

Department Rapped.
Mr. Kirkwood, while acknowledging the necessity of state control in educational matters, at the same time had felt the handicap of inability to carry out ideals through the hindrance of state control.

Inspector C. B. Edwards had a word to say about the tendency of the department of education to crumple into a course. It planned, "everything in heaven above and the earth beneath." There was hearty applause from the association when the presiding officer followed up this remark with the wish it might get to the "bureau" in Toronto.

Rev. W. J. Knox opened the convention at 9 o'clock with devotional exercises and a short address, after which various reports were presented.

Miss Knott, secretary-treasurer, reported a balance on hand of $145.62.

Prizes Awarded.
Inspector Edwards reported in regard to the Strathcona Trust, a fund for prizes for physical training and military drill.

In the north division, Empress Avenue School captured the first prize for physical training of $15, and Ryerson School the second, $10.

In the south division, the first prize went to the Simcoe Street School, this amounting to $5, and the second to Miss Baskette's in the Ryerson.

For military drill, the cadets of Lorne Avenue School earned off the first prize, amounting to $12 in the north division, and the Empress Avenue cadets the second prize, of $10.

In the south, Alexandra cadets were the first prize winners and Aberdeen School the second.
For rifle shooting, Lorne Avenue School came first, Alexandra School second, and Empress Avenue School third, winning $10, $7 and $4, respectively.

On motion of H. B. Beal, seconded by W. J. Snidergrove, the following committee was appointed to consider a means of securing teachers' superannuation, and to make report to a special meeting of the association to be called for the purpose, Misses Morris, Skelton, Yeates, E. Johnson, I. Carson, Kelso, Messers, Edwards, Rogers, Cameron, Bryant, McKone, Morrow, Beal, Snidergrove, and the president-elect and secretary-elect of the association.

Mr. McWilliams of the Technical School staff outlined the advantages offered by the summer school course in Queen's University.
Edith Cavell Fund.
At the close of the regular session of the association, Miss E. Yeates called a meeting to consider the question of a fund of some hundred dollars collected by teachers and pupils in the city for wards an Edith Cavell memorial. On her motion, the following committee was appointed to consider the question of the adjusting of the fund or forwarding it to Toronto, it being strongly felt that it would be desirable to keep it in London for some form of memorial here. Inspector C. B. Edwards, the president and secretary of the association, Misses Morris and Boone, and Messrs. MacQueen and Copeland.
Professor Coleman again addressed the association this afternoon and a lecture will be given at 8 o'clock in connection with "Canadian Poets," by John W. Garvin, B.A., editor-author of Canadian Poets.

TEAMSTER INJURED WHEN STRUCK BY A STREET CAR

David Perry Has Head and Shoulders Hurt When Driving Across Track.

David Perry, a teamster, whose home is on the base line, sustained injuries was struck by a street car at 2 o'clock today at the corner of York and Talbot while driving across the tracks.
He was seated in the wagon and, apparently, failed to hear the approach of the car. When the car struck the wagon, he was thrown out, striking on his head and shoulders. He sustained bruises and cuts. He was removed to the office of Dr. D. H. Hogg, on York street, where his injuries were attended to, and later was taken to his home.

x-London Player Wanted by Wayco Way Down in Texas

Write Pres. Fitzgerald of Canadian League Asking the Whereabouts of Louis Bierbauer.

Where is one Louis Bierbauer?

This is the question that has been passed on, and is still being trotted about. The ex-first-sacker of the London Canadian League team is wanted by the Wayco team of Texas.

The president of that club wrote to President Fitzgerald of the Canadian League asking where Louis could be located, but as Mr. Fitzgerald is wearing the khaki in the 15th (Sportsman's) Battalion, and far removed from baseball grounds, his wife received the letter, and has written Sam Stevely, president of the late London crew, asking where Louis takes his meals.

Passes On the News.
Mr. Stevely, in a letter to the well-known J. H. F., to hunt up Bierbauer. The latter states that Louis was working in St. Thomas last he saw of him. However, Mr. Bierbauer, wherever you are, get busy with your pen and ink and communicate with the Wayco Baseball Club.

HAS COLLECTED $3,223 TO HELP IN FRENCH RELIEF

Municipal Chapter, I. O. O. F., Reports Excellent Work During Month.

At the regular meeting of the Municipal Chapter, I. O. O. F., held today, it was reported that since last meeting $367 had been donated to the British Red Cross, $190 to the Universal Christian Box Fund and $70 to the Duplicates of Connaught Gift Fund for Prisoners of War.

The order in London is providing for 42 prisoners of war in Germany. The Municipal Chapter, through its flag day, with contributions from various parts of the military district, has collected to date the sum of $2,237 for French relief. It was decided to forward this as a whole to the national headquarters of the Secours National, with the request that it be used for relief work in France.

Reference was made to the fact that in Detroit several daughters of the British Empire are now making their homes in the American city, as well as many American sympathizers with the cause of the Allies, are next week holding a bazaar for these. To show appreciation of the Municipal Chapter donated $25, which will be spent in souvenir spoons of the bazaar. It was decided that $150 had been raised yesterday at the rummage sale, which is being continued today.

DELIGHTFUL SOCIAL AT ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH

Soldiers Entertained at Informal Concert and Supper.

About one hundred men of B Company of the 14th Battalion were entertained by the young people of St. Andrew's Church in St. Andrew's Hall last evening.
A most entertaining program, in which the soldiers took part, was put on in a delightfully informal way. Miss Dora Bradley of the choir of St. Andrew's, gave a number of vocal and one violin selection, all of which were enthusiastically received by the men. Some good talent was shown by the men. The latter, Capt. Moncrieff, in command of B Company, and Capt. Wykesmith, second in command, attended with the men.

After the program, delicious refreshments were served, and the young ladies were complimented on their culinary abilities. The evening broke up in sufficient time for the soldiers to report in camp before lights out.

RUMANIA WILL

capacity for continuing the offensive and dictating their strategy to us.

Down Go Defences.

"From the beginning of the operation this summer on the Russian southwestern front the enemy has lost control of the situation. In spite of his superhuman efforts to regain the initiative he has utterly failed to do so. Again and again on this front the enemy's decided efforts to block our plans and throw us back on the defensive, has been ruined by the valor and fortitude of our heroic troops.

"Simultaneously our brave allies on the western front, beginning a summer's campaign, which must by now have demonstrated to the German high command that with all its material, it cannot construct no defences which the French and British cannot surely, if slowly, destroy. Italy, too, has had successes."

End Foreboded.
"If there remain any Germans who are still hopeful of their cause, let them realize that today when the Central powers already have lost the initiative and are finding difficulty in refilling their ranks, Russia has not yet reached the zenith of her power. Surely, no intelligent German can expect victory. It is simply a question of how long they are willing to continue the war, of which the end is absolutely foreboded today."

Russell's full power will only be approached next year, when we shall have the largest and best army since the beginning of the war. Even this year we have been obliged to conduct our offensive with an inferiority of numbers of the war. We shall have material and heavy guns that we shall have material in equity with the enemy, and a superiority in human resources which will steadily increase as long as the war endures.

Morale Is Rising.
"The morale of the Russian people has been rising for two years. It is my conviction that if it were possible to take a vote of the entire population 99 out of 100 Russians today would demand the continuation of the war to a definite end. Our new levies each year are equal to the best troops. I believe they are far superior to anything which the enemy could find to send against us in next year's campaign. The recent temporary reverses of Rumania must not be considered as having the slightest significance. The enemy's trifling advance in the Dobruja, though a regrettable incident, will have no bearing upon the greater issues of the war. It would have been serious had the Germans been able to pierce the Carpathians and enter Rumania, but I believe this last attempt of theirs to reach the initiative somewhere is doomed to perish as all their attempts of the summer campaign have perished."

GOLDEN STATE

that California was the pivot upon which the election would swing.

Desert Ballots Told.

It was not until stage coaches had rolled away from communities tucked away in the Sierran settlements on the arid eastern slopes of the mountains that the result was known. Ordinarily the few votes cast in these remote districts are considered of little moment, but in this history-making presidential year they were of vital importance. They could not be reached by train or by telegraph, and the trails and passes leading to them were choked with snow in many places. There was nothing to do but wait for the stages, and they began coming in last night.

Similar difficulties were encountered in collecting the returns from the wilds of New Mexico and from the far reaches of Minnesota. The most arduous campaign of Mexico's three electoral votes have been considered merely as incidental in swelling the majority of the candidates.

Centers.
That President Wilson's election will not be conceded without a recount in the close states was the declaration of Republican leaders today after conferences lasting far into last night. Some definite course of action probably will be decided upon within a few hours.

The states in which it was said in course to judicial proceedings were likely were California, New Hampshire, New Mexico and North Dakota. No such statement was forthcoming as to what was contemplated, but Chairman William R. Wilcox of the national committee, asserted a recount would be demanded wherever the margin of a comparatively few votes would turn the scales. He and his advisers took the position that the ballot boxes in no "cloud" upon Mr. Wilson's title to the presidency. Until President Wilson's victory was assured, the Democrats were preparing to demand a recount in the so-called "doubtful" states.

Charges of Tampering.
Both parties have called for a recount in New Hampshire, where less than 200 votes seem likely to determine the result. Charges of attempts to tamper with the ballot boxes in North Dakota have been made in several sections of that state, and have been laid before the federal district attorney by the United States marshal. Agents of the department of justice have been mobilized at points in other states.

The Republicans contended, it was said unofficially today, that since the Democrats claimed California by a margin of only approximately 3,000 out of nearly 1,000,000 votes cast, it was apparent slight errors in a district here and there might change the outcome.

No Fraud, Say Democrats.
The Democrats maintained, on the other hand, that no charges of fraud
