MR. AND MRS. A. L. MURRAY.

EMBRO, Nov. 10.-An event of unusual interest to Zorra and the surrounding district took place in Embro on October 31, when there was celebrated the diamond wedding of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Murray. Mr. Murray is one of the few surviving pioneers of the noted township of Zorra, and in his day figured largely in public and religious affairs, representing the township as reeve and in many other public offices.

In the early days he led the Gaelic singing in the historical Pres. byterian congregation of Embro, and was an active member and elder of this church, much of his success and popularity in life being due of this church, much of his success and popularity in life being due to his wife, Annie McKay.

Mr. Murray is the only surviving member of his family, but a brother and sister of Mrs. Murray are still living. The former is Rev. R. P. McKay, D.D., ex-moderator of the general assembly of the Presbyterian Church, and Mrs. (Dr.) Andrew McKay of Woodstock is the circumstance.

Many friends and relatives are extending their congratulations. Three children are happy to do honor to such loving parents—two daughters and one son, Dr. A. J. Murray of 866 Wellington street, London. There are 15 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.
