McNALLY-PRATT.

A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Pratt, Inwood, Wednesday, Oct. 4, when their eldest daughter, Gladys Victoria, became the bride of Leslie Earl McNally, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. McNally, Inwood. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. McVicar in the presence of the immediate relatives. At 2 o'clock the brida party, who were unattended, took their place beneath a white wedding bell which hung from an arch of evergreens and flowers. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a becoming frock of midnight blue canton crepe, and corsage bouquet of sweet peas and ferns. NEWTON-GUENTHER. A very pretty September wedding took place on Saturday, Sept. 23, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Guenther, Brantford, when their daughter, Bessie Margaret, was united in marriage to Mr. Harold Ellis Newton of Toronto.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. Wootton of Brant Avenue Methodist Church. The bride looked charming in French ivory satin with veil and orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia oses and lily-of-the-valley. Miss Alice Guenther, sister of the bride, as bridesmaid, was dressed in lavender and silver and carried pink roses. Mr. Roy Chambers of Toronto acted as best man. Mr. James Galloway, organist of Brant Avenue Methodist Church, played the wedding march, and Miss Laura Wilson sang very sweetly during the signing of the register. After a buffet luncheon, the happy couple left for New York and Atlantic City, the bride wearing a navy Canton crepe dress with brown wrap and hat to match. TOOTHPICK much space. I am sorry, Toothpick, but I haven't Mrs. J. T. H's address on file. Possibly when she sees your request for it she will sent it in. I am mailing you Penelope's address. Thank you for the extra patterns, also for the inclosed hospital mite. No, there are very few Boxites from your town.

WANTS CLOTHES.

Dear Cynthia,-This is my first letter I am writing to you. Hope you will have a little corner for me. I am a mother of six children, and expect another in about three months, and I thought I would see if any of the readers would let me have any baby's clothes, or if they had any old clothes I could make up for my children. They are from 8 years down to 1 year. I would be very glad and thankful to anybody who will send me some. 8. S. W.

I am sorry to hear you are in need of clothes, S. S. W., and hope that someone will be able to spare a few for you and your babies. Your address is on file and anyone wishing to send you clothes may have it from the Mail-Box, and send the parcels direct to you. SURPRISED AT EAR-PUFFS.

Dear Miss Grey,-Have been sitting about two minutes wondering how to start my first letter to the Mail-Box. There, its started, so now I can go on. So pleased to have Miss Grey's picture every day at the head of the Mail-Box. I just knew when so many wanted your photo published you couldn't refuse them all. It's very nice, but I was surprised about the ear-puffs. I like them on some and they look very nice on you, but thought you didn't approve of them. You certainly are deluged with letters, but if you like getting them as well as I do, it will be all right. I am a very poor correspondent, else would have written ages ago, because I enjoy every letter that is published. Where is March Wind gone to? also Rose of Sharon. Mrs. Homebird. Oh, there are so many good writers, I just wish they would all come often. Haven't we had a lovely summer, not too hot or cold; the lawns have always been so green and everyone seems to have a good garden, I don't seem to have anything special to say, but just wish I could help some of those in need. TORIA So you like the picture at the top of the Mail-Box do you, Toria? It isn't such a terrible ordeal as you would imagine writing to the Mail-Box, is it? Thank you for remembering our hospital fund on your first visit. We had a lovely long letter from Rose of Sharon, didn't you see it? But March Wind and Mrs. Homebird have deserted us all together. Come again soon, Toria. WHO IS SHE?

Dear Cynthia Grey,-Just a line to ask you to address inclosed letter to A Lonseome Mother, A READER. and oblige, The address of a Lonesome Mother s not on file. Do you think you have he correct name? If there is a Lonesome Mother in the Mail-Box will she please send in her name and address, so that I can forward A Reader's letter to her?

GINGER SNAPS.

Miss Grey,-Would you please address the inclosed letter to Esme, and if it isn't bothering you too much would you please print the recipe for ginger cookies again that had black pepper in. These frosts will take all our pretty flowers, won't it? I have been gathering seeds, also saved muskmelon and water-melon seeds too. Best wishes, Miss Grey, BRITAIN'S LASS. Here is the Baker's Ginger Snap recipe: One cup each of molasses, sugar, butter or lard and butter mixed, 1 teaspoon soda, 1 tablespoon ginger, nearly half teaspoon black pepper. Mix ingredients, dissolve soda in hot water. Add flour enough to stir in, pinch off pieces the size of marbles, roll in hand and slightly flatten. Allow space for spreading in tin. Bake. Let remain till cool. Your letter has been forwarded as requested.

LECTURING HERE ARMISTICE DAY

By interesting coincidence, the date on which Prof. Ralph Hodder-Williams, historian of the Princess Pats, is free to come to London to give a course of lectures under the auspices of the Woman Teachers' Guild is Nov. 10 and 11. One of his subjects may have her address from the Mail- is to be "Relation of France to the Other Allies in the Great War," and it probable he will be speaking on this on Armistice Day. A subject of vital interest at the present time is the "Near East," one of his lecture themes. Another on which he has been asked to speak is "Making of the Italian Nation."
