COMMITTEE REFUSES PLAN TO REDUCE SIZE OF COUNCIL

Question Is Sent on to Council Without Any Recommendation.

SMITH ONLY ONE

A three-clause bylaw to change the size and manner of electing city councils, sponsored by Ald. Edwin Smith, was defeated by No. 1 committee last night. The question was sent to the council without any re-commendation. Alderman Smith, as spokesman for a special sub-com-mittee, favored letting the people decide if they wanted a council of eight aldermen, abolition of the ward sys-tem, and a two-year term for aldermen. All three proposals got a cooreception from members of the committee and were turned down flatly Ald. Douglass declared the threclauses would make the ballot corfusing, Ald. Drake was satisfied with the present system, and Ald. McKay argued that if councils were to be elected from the city as a whole why not elect members of parliament from the country as a whole or cut the directorate of the chamber of
