2 BUSY STORES.

230 and 232 Dundas Street.

Just received, several special lines of goods which calm and unmoved as ever, was are laid on our counters at prices that will make them Rotan, promptly went to him, and go. We buy in large quan- a long and earnest colloquy ensued. tities which enables us to and was apparently offering suggesget prices right.

We Show Five Special Lines

worth $1.50, Whiskard's price $1.00 each.

comb Quilts, worth $1.25, OUR PRICE 75c EACH.

Net, goods worth 35c, Selling for 10c and 15c yard.

See our east window.

Special line of Ladies' Silk four corners, think of it,

ONLY 5c EACH. Special Purchase of Spot

Muslins, AT SPECIAL PRICES.

Dress Goods.

worth 50c,

Millinery.

astonish you in prices.

are worth 60c; this line we sell AT 35c EACH.

Bird worth $1. OUR PRICE, 50c EACH.

Call and see them.

dresses, extra value, AT 121c YARD.

See our new line of Chenille Curtains, worth $5,

Whiskard's price $3.50 pair. Fancy Chenille Table Covers, AT 40c, $1, $2, $2.25.

Figured Crepon Silk, wide

ONLY 35c YARD.

See our Gray Flannel, light

AT 12 c YARD.

Ladies' Merino Undervests and Drawers, ONLY 25c EACH.

Infants' White Wool Mitts, special value,

AT 15c AND 20c PAIR. Infants' White Wool Veils, FROM 10c EACH UP.

Infants' Fine White Wool Undervests.

ONLY 20c EACH.

Infants' Hand-made Wool Hoods and Jackets, regular price 75c,

SELLING AT 65c EACH. Children's Black Wool Mitts,

ONLY 12 c PAIR. Boys' Heavy Ribbed Wool Hose, in all sizes,

25c PAIR. Ladies' Plain Wool Hose,

seamless,

HOLMES BREAKS DOWN

MUCH FOR HIM.

The Murderer's Alleged Wife Gives Evidence, and is the space usually reserved for witthe court's enclosure. Holmes, as counsel, Messrs. Shoemaker and tions. He appeared to be brighter dren. and more cheerful than at any time ness of the day proved to be a lively to use that name. one. This was Sidney L. Samuels, a "Cross-examine," said Mr. Graham. Tex., a young, clean-shaven man quietly to Holmes, arose and told the Special purchase of White with a twinkling eye and the most court that the prisoner insisted on Honeycomb Quilts, large size, quickly and sharply, and invariably person. referred to Holmes as "the individ-Fine Large White Honey- term was used. Mr. Graham produc- dressing his questions tremulously ed the note identified by Mrs. Pietand for which purpose he took $5,000 crier, who repeated them aloud. from her. Mr. Samuels said the bedy 10 and 11 on Sunday morning, Sept. Special line of Fancy Curtain of the note was in his handwriting. Inspector Gary, of the Insurance 2nd?" Company, was recalled, Mr. Grahant saying he proposed to prove by him man, and that Miss Yoke was not Handkerchiefs, embroidered in his lawful wife, as he asserts, and against him. Mr. Gary said he had appearance then?" self as Mrs. H. H. Holmes. He walking fast; that, if I was well identified a photograph of her. Last enough, we should leave that even December witness saw Holmes in ing Special purchase of 700 yards Miss Yoke, known as Mrs. Howard. of Fine Heavy Dress Goods, 50 She was not the woman he had seen being sent to W.llamette?" of Fine Heavy Dress Goods, 50 in Willamette. The letter was read inches wide, in three shades of to the jury. Two other letters were grey, myrtle, black, garnet, offered, written by Holmes, one bronze, brown and cardinal, from Columbus to H. M. Cass, Chicago, agent of the insurance of identification. At this point a side door in the room was opened, and Miss Yoke, or o'clock. Mrs. Howard, was ushered in. She was at once called to the stand, and gave her testimony in a whisper, We have something that will which was interpreted by the crier. For the first time Holmes broke down. He gazed steadily at her for a few seconds, while his hands BIRDS! BIRDS! BIRDS! twitched nervously and his lips opened and closed, but she carefully We show two lines that will avoided meeting his eyes. Then he pay you to buy. These birds suddenly bent forward over the little desk in his dock, and the tears began to trickle down his cheeks. He drew his handkerchief out, and for mement or two sobbed. Then, Then we show a Very Fine quickly recovering himself, he dried his eyes and bowed his head busily engaging himself with his notes, but still occasionally giving way to a

Miss Yoke testified that she was in Fancy Red and Black Flan- St. Louis in June, 1894, when Holmes nelette, suitable for children's was in the drug business. She engaged attorneys for him when he was in jail. Miss Yoke came to Philadelphia the first week in August. At this time Holmes said he was in the stand and identified pictures of her had to contend in dealing with councopying business, looking after leases, dead sisters and brother. deeds, etc. Mr. Graham then put a series of questions, to fix Holmes' fied that he went to Boston to bring Reverting then to whereabouts on the day the murfler Holmes to this city. The prisoner had Lord Salisbury said that the great -Sunday, Sept. 2, 1894. "I was in my room on the evening of Satur- of detectives here. Sept. 1," answered the witness. "I had been i'l, part of the time in He said that he had an interview length with the depression of husbed. The prisoner was at home. With Holmes in this city after the handry. The last few years, he said, Some one called during the evening latter was brought here from Boston. had been years of threatening and to see him and he went down stairs. Geyer said to Holmes that he under-increasing ruin, largely due to econo-When he came up he said it was a stood the body found at 1,316 Callow- mic and climatic reasons. It was and dark, twilled and plain, Ralroad, and he was to see the cfHolmes told him that on Sunday. place in the cultivation of the counficials of that company at the mess- September 2, he went to New York try. The first consideration was a enger's house next morning to close and got the body from a medical relief from taxation, and the Governout contracts for copying. After student he knew, brought it to this ment ought to try and assist the farwards he said the caller was B. F. city in a trunk the same afternoon, mers in the matter of transportation Pietzel. This was the day before we and met Pietzel at the Western Union and facilities of communication. part of the next day. He went out at half-past ten in the morning and came back between 3 and 4 in the on 11th street, and that night left Oswego, N. Y., Oct. 31.—The jury Nicetown, a suburb of Philadelphia. He next time he met Pietzel was in on trial for murder in the first de-He said he would go home to Indianname of Howard. We left on the 10.15 train. The prisoner remained with me in Indianapolis for a day or was going to St. Lovis. When he This lieu'd was a wash for cleaning ed the prisoner uttered a piercing other's home in Franklin, Ind. From there we returned to Indiantwice to St. Louis, and on one of these occasions he said he was going balance payable semi-annually. After nation of the whereabouts of the chillatter ordered the revenue cutter his return from Philadelphia he told dren, Holmes said they had gone to Winona and Morrill to the keys to identification marks after the doctor and that he had never seen any of had failed to locate them. Of the them since he sent the girl from To-

THE SIGHT OF MISS YOKE TOO to his broker, Mr. Blackman, in Geyer tell of the finding of the chilhaps more, perhaps less. He gave strenuously, and the jury was taken me several presents-a bible, a locket, from the room while the argument diamond earrings and a little heart upon the question was made. The set with pearls. He next left me matter before the court was the most Cross-Examined by the Prisoner-Evidence as about Oct. 9 and 10 and said he was important that had yet come up. The to the Killing of the Pietzel Children Ruled Out. going to Cincinnati. I went to my Commonwealth undoubtedly has basmother's home in Franklin, Ind., and ed much of its case upon the evidence joined him in Detroit. We stopped of the killing of the children by Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 31.-After at the Hotel Normandie until the Holmes, not alone for the effect it he privileged persons had been per- next night, and then went to a would probably produce, but to show mitted to enter the court room in rooming house on Park Place. On that the murder of Pietzel was but which the Holmes trial is taking Oct. 18 we went to Toronto. We re- one link in the chain of deaths he place and the doors guarded against mained there until the 26th, I be- plotted. If evidence of the murder of further intruders, there appeared to lieve. During our stay there he told the children was barred out the Combe almost as many women as men me he was going on a pleasure trip. monwealth's case would lose much of present. Most of them had seats in From Toronto we went to Prescott, its strength, as the evidence of the Canada, where we stayed one day. killing of Pietzel is purely presumpnesses, and a number sat within Holmes was with me part of the tive and circumstautial, and the pro-the court's enclosure. Holmes, as time. Thence we went to Ogdens secution might have difficulty in provburg, N. Y., where he was with me ing directly the murder by Holmes. placed in the dock at 10 a. m. His counsel. Messrs. Shoemaker and to Burlington, Vt., where we remained three weeks or more and next much earnestness. The arguments went to Boston. Here we remained consumed an hour, and then Judge Holmes did most of the whispering, ing all these travels I did not see spoken but a half dozen sentences a week, when he was arrested. Dur- Arnold rendered his decision. He had anything of Mrs. Pietzel or the chil- when it was evident he intended to since the trial began, and after his picture, and identified it as that of of the children had no direct bearing counsel had resumed their sears ne a man she had known in Fort on the case for which the prisoner charted and laughed with two court Worth as F. T. Lyman. Holmes was was arraigned. While the judge was member of the bar of Fort Worth. Mr. Rotan, who had been talking perfect self-possession. He spoke conjucting the cross-examination in

The court consented, and Holmes, ual." This amused even Holmes, arising, stood in the corner of his who smiled broadly whenever the dock nearest the witness stand, addirect to the woman he calls his wife. zel yesterday as the one Holmes pre- bet she never raised her eyes and tended to pay at the St. Louis bank, "ave her replies in a whisper to the

"I did." "When did you next see me?" " I have stated I believe it was bethat Holmes was a much-married tween three and four in the afternoon.'

"Will you try, as far as you can is therefore competent to testify remember, to describe my personal seen at the prisoner's house in Wil- "You came in hurr'edly, and said it lamette a woman representing her- was warm, and that you had been Moyamensing prison, this city, when "Was not my condition such that he told him of his visit to Willam- you could readily see I must have

"Did you ever know me to send any money there?" "I did not."

At this point Holmes told the court company, giving him a detailed de- that he would reserve what other Whiskard's price 25c yard, scription of Pietzel for the purpose questions he had until he called the lament that, though the protectionwitness directly for the defence. Here the court took a recess until 2

w. B. McKillop, of Burlington, 'Vt was the first witness this afternoon. He identified a photograph of the house in Burlington. Vt., that Holmes had rented for Mrs. Pietzel under the name of Judson. Mrs. Pietzel was called to the stand trousers her husband had on when he left home and then she was excused. Dessie also identified the articles. Dr. H. L. Sidebotham, coroner's physician, identified the clothing as that which he took from the body when it was exhumed.

again to identify the tie, shirt and

Dr. Mattern was re-called for the purpose of identifying the clothing as hat taken from the body of Pietzel. Sergt. W. Sower, one of the police nen called in at the time Pietzel's nations. picture as that of the man he had in the Armenian affair in a passage seen at 1,316 Callowhill street. Under of his speech in which he said that cross-examination he described the he regretted that any man, however Holiness intending in this way to per of the house. .

messenger from the Pennsylvania bill street was a substituted body. evident that a change must take office at 10th and Chestnut streets, and gave him the check for the trunk. He then went to his boarding house for the west. Holmes told him that in the case of Mrs. Harriet Kellar, the post office at Detroit. Holmes gree for the killing of Albert Kempsaid that he had given Pietzel instructihorne, a Canadian, on August 27, We were known here by the tions how to prepare the body for the after thirteen hours' deliberation, swindle. He was to place it on its rendered a verdict of murder in the back, one hand upon the breast, one second degree. Justice McLennan by the side, and to place some liquid sentenced her to Auburn Prison for two. Then he went away, saying he in the mouth and cause an explosion. life. As the sentence was pronouncclothes that they were making. He shrick and fell to the floor unconalso told him to burn the breast and scious. Her three little boys wept apolis, and a few days afterwards he arm. He also instructed P'etzel how. bitterly. A motion for a new trial to Phi'adelphia, saying the by working the arms of the corpse. was denied. opying deal had been closed. He he could inject choloroform into the returned from Philadelphia about stomach. At a subsequent interview the 24th of the month, and he then Holmes retracted the above statement went to St. Lou's to meet Lawyer and told Geyer that the body was that After we came back from of Pietzel. On hearing this Gever Philadelphia to Indianapolis he went said, "Holmes, if that was Pietzel's body you murdered him and killed the three chi'dren." "No. I didn't. to meet a man from Fort Worth, Mr. Geyer," replied Holmes. "I will who was to buy the block in that tell you about it." Holmes then told city. When he returned from this Gever the story that Pietzel committrip, he said he had sold the block ted suicide and of his finding him tion. The Spanish Consul here comfor $35,000-$10,000 in cash and the dead on Sunday morning. In expla- plained to Collector Browne, and the me he had met Howe on the train. Lendon with Minnie Williams. When prevent the expedition leaving. He had the little girl with him and he asked where their trunks were. was going to identify the body of his Holmes said he left them in a hotel money he received for the Fort Worth ronto. property he said he had sent $5,000 Mr. Graham proposed now to have Chicago. He gave me $2,000-per-dren's bodies. The defence objected rule the evidence out, and this he The witness we's shown Pietzel's did, on the grounds that the killing officers stationed next to the little golden-barred cage in which he sat. The taking of testimony was resumed promptly, and the first witness of the day was and be swallowed a lump in his throat that had been nearly choking

The jury was brought back and Deective Geyer resumed his place on the stand for cross-examination. This vas very brief, and then Mr. Granam tried to work what looked like a clever trick to introduce his evilence of the killing of the children. He asked the court if he could not atroduce evidence disproving Holmes' statement that the children were given to Minnie Williams, but Judge Arnold replied that he considered that statement had already been sufciently disproved.

Sunt of Police Linden was called to the stand. He had an interview Sudden Death of a Babe-Action Against the T. H. with Holmes on January 6, 1895. In this interview Holmes repeated Linden the story of Pietzel's suicide much as he had told Geyer.

SALISBURY SPEAKS.

England's Foreign Policy - The

Salisbury made a speech at Water- working in the T., H. & B. tunnel, has ette. Holmes then said he wanted been much excited during my abto write a letter to his wife, and did sence?"

so, asking the witness to mail it. "You looked as if you had been in a hurry, and you looked worried."

Subsequently witness had spoken to a hurry, and you looked worried."

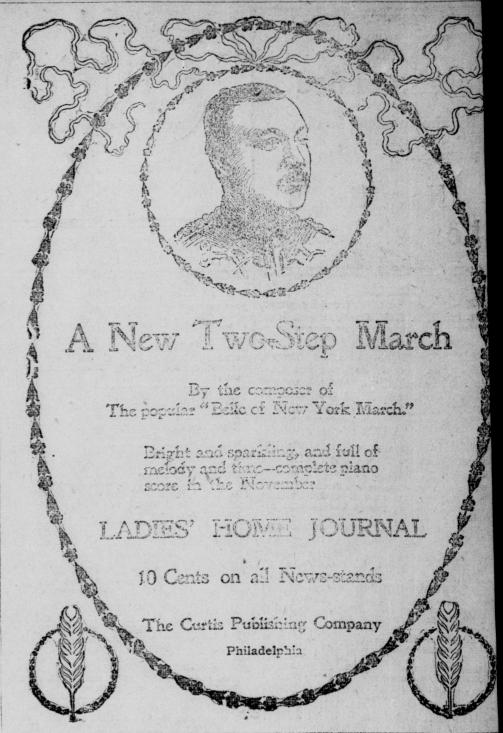

Toro yesterday to an addicate which issued a writ against Contractor on included Earl Cowper. Earl Brownlow, the Earl of Clarendon, the Earl derdonk for $10,000 damages. The jury at the inquest into Turk's death brought in a verdict that the accident Rothschild, Lord Hyde and a number of Conservative members of Par- tractors. liament.

During the course of his remarks "Since the repeal of the corn laws ve have had the strongest cause to ists resisted, their warnings had not been listened to more carefully. The njuring husbandry, but a lowering f prices resulted, and free trade has almost killed agriculture in several countries." The Marquis did not blame those who had passed the free trade laws, but they should have thought more of the peculiar burden under which the land labored, and should have lightened the weight of those burdens when it could have een done with ease. Lord Salisbury then adverted to the foreign policy of Great Britain, and in this connection he declared that he had carried out the work of his precursors for the sake of maintaining the very important object of a unity of English policy in the face of foreign body was found, identified the latter's against Mr. Gladstone's interference position of the body and the condition earnest and eminent, had thought it worth while to add to the difficulties Desie Pietzel was re-called to the with which the nations of Europe tries in which the bitter differences Detective Thes. E. Crowford festi- of race and creed were traditional. two tin boxes full of papers, which question in domestic affairs was were opened in the office of the chief social amelioration, and not the pull-Detective E. Geyer was next called pieces. He then dealt again at great

PREVENTED FROM LEAVING.

Key West, Fiorida, Oct. 31.-Great excitement has been caused here by the report that bands of Cubans are encamped on Cudjoe, Howe and Pine Keys ready to sail for the island. the three keys, and it is claimed they Miss Flagler, daughter of General client's husband. Holmes told him on West Madison avenue, in Detroit. Flagler, of Washington, whose shoot-to call on him if he was needed for At another interview Holmes contraining and killing of a negro boy who identification. He told me of the dicted himself by stating that he had was stealing fruit several months visit to the Potter's Field, in Philagiven the boy Howard in charge of a ago created a sensation, was indict-delphia, and of the finding of the man named Hatch at Indianapolic led vesterday for manslaughton. delphia, and of the finding of the man named Hatch at Indianapolis, ed yesterday for manslaughter.

HAMILTON.

& E. Co.-Rev. Mr. Laidlaw's Will-Mrs. Andrews Dying-Earthquake.

Hamilton, Oct. 31.-The 15-monthsold child of Jos. Keys, at 88 Birge street, died suddenly this morning A COMBINATION PLUG OF while the parents were both at work. leaving the infant in charge of a little Causes of Agricultural Depres- child. Keys is a carter, and his wife is employed at the screw works. An inquest will be held.

Lordon, Oct. 31.—The Marquis of Win. Turk, who was killed while resulted from negligence of the con-

the Prime Minister referred to the to-day. The estate is valued at $13, law, D. D., was entered for probate dren-one daughter and three sons. Some of the residents of the city aftirm that they felt six distinct shocks of earthquake at six o'clock this merning. Houses were shaken, and in some the plaster was knocked from the walls. Mrs. T. Andrews, who was injured in the Queen's Hotel fire, is gradually sinking, and the physicians in attendance at St. Joseph's Hospital have no hope of her recovery.

CARDINAL SATOLLI.

Washington, Oct. 31 .- Mgr. Satolli. the Papal ablegate, to-day received omeial notification of his elevation to Gibbons as follows:-"To the Most Eminent Cardinal Gibbons, Unite form an act gratifying to your emin ence, (Signed.)-Rampola, Cardinal.

ion Tea.

172 and 174 Dundas St.

MOTHER

How often mother scolds and threaten to punishment because there is more darning to be done. Is it your fault? Sometimes may be, but we are inclined t think it is more often mother's Boys will be boys. Romp and play they must. The back fence. must be scaled. But it's

If your stockings don't wear well she don't buy the right article. We are LONDON'S GREATEST HOSIERY DEALERS, and keep in stockings everything worth buy-ing. Sell'em? Yes, we sell them, lots of them, and cheaper than any other dealer.

THE LARGEST HOSIERY STOCK.

We don't convey an idea of values by a long list of prices, but will quote a few:

Boys' Heavy Ribb. Wool from ...$ Boys' Heavy Ribb., largest size.
Boys' or Girls' Ribb., full Ladies' Cashmere Wool.
Ask to see our No. 372; a little higher in price, but it's a beauty.

Ladies' and Children's Underwear are next to the hosiery. See the leaders at 15c, 39c, 50c.

To Smokers

To meet the wishes of the customers The Geo. E. Tucket Son Co., Ltd., Hamilton, O. have placed upon the market

SMOKING TOBACK

This supplies a long felt want, giv the consumer one 20 cent plug, or famous "T. & B." brand of p Virginia Tobacco.

The tin tag T. & B. is on every pi

- I Fib

SPRING, 1895. Ginghams, Zephyrs, Cheviot sui ings, Flannoicties, Dress Good Skirtings, Oxfords, Shirting

Cottonades, Awnings, Ticking NOW READY.

MORRICE, SONS & CO

AGENTS,

Sed Samiles in Wholesale House

MONTREAL AND TORONTO

Element Co., sot Man

quick cure for sick headach

GIVES HEALTH BY NATURAL MEAN KEEPS THE THROAT CLEAN AND HEALTHY. DELIGHTFULLY REFRESHING. SOLD BY ALL CHEMISTS. WORKS CROYDON ENGLAN

CURE VOURSELF! Use Big & for Gonorrhoe

-Mr. William Wainwright will sever his connection with the Grand Trunk in March.

A rice mill, with $100,090 worth of clean rice, was burned at New Orleans yesterday. Loss, $300,000.