PASPEBIAC

We are all glad to welcome back Mr. C. P. LeMaistre, who has been down to Bonaventure Island for the last two weeks, as agent for The Le-Boutillier Bros. Co. Ltd.

On Wednesday the 3rd this town was visited by a very heavy snow storm, which lasted the whole day, only clearing off about 5 o'clock in the evening. A very unusual occurrence for this time of the year.

J. W. LeGallais, Esq., who has been teller in the Bank of Nova Scotia for the last few months, has lately been transferred to Chandler, where he will continue his former duties. We wish him success.

Mr. P. C. LeGallais paid a flying visit to Chandler on the 4th inst., returning on the 5th inst.

J. Edmond Levesque paid a flying visit to Port Daniel on the 4th inst.

Mrs. E. B. Romeril, who has been visiting friends in Montreal, returned on the 6th inst., after a very enjoyable time.

The Cruiser Marguerite is in the harbour where it had to run for shelter after the Friday's storm, which was the worst of the season, and the Marguerite while here, threw its search light over the town, which for the moment quite startled the good town's people.

Messrs. Chas. and Henry Nadeau were in town on the 8th inst.

The storm on Friday last, has played havoc with the fishing schooners on this coast, and it is feared that the best part of the fishing will have to be given up for this year, which will come very hard on the fishermen.

NEWPORT CENTRE

The terrific storm which spread destruction on this coast last week, did not spare our village. The shores were strewn with wreckage, nets, lobster traps, etc., at Newport Island alone, twenty-four large fishing boats were destroyed. Ernie LeMarquand's gasoline launch was also destroyed. No lives were lost however, though three men were washed off the wharf and escaped drowning by clinging to ropes, till help arrived, the rescuers themselves being slashed in the sea several times. About $7,000 of damage was done.

Hon. John Hall Kelly was in town the 27th.

Mr. Hamon was in town last week. Mr. W. Helleur, commercial traveler, was in town last week.
