THE G.O.M. TAKES THE STUMP

MUCH TO BE DONE ONCE IRELAND'S DEMANDS COMPLIED WITH.

The Country Expects the Removal of Legislative Powers—London's Municipal Council has been taken in the direction of a radical extension. The 8-Hour Day a Large Scheme to Progress.

LONDON, June 1.—Mr. Gladstone, in addressing the London Liberal-Union League last night, said that the dissolution of Parliament was approaching with great strides.

The whole country was awake and was expecting the removal of legislative powers by the Government. It was a gigantic task, but it might be accomplished, in a way, once the Irish problem was disposed of.

There was no group of questions the Liberal were more united upon than those affecting the London municipal powers. They believed that local control should have the widest extension.

Respecting the 8-hour question Mr. Gladstone said that he had intended to the London Trades Council his readiness to receive a deputation in June, but that the day of eight hours after the Whit Sunday holidays.

A uniform working day of eight hours, he said, was a large scheme to propose. The promoters of the scheme, however, should not be judged harshly, for in the early stages of all reforms.

He thought that voluntary action on the part of both sides in giving consideration to the question would be in the direction of shortening the hours of work. But the same ideas were hardly applicable to the expenditure of national money which was concerned.

There might be cause for Parliamentary interference in cases where industries possessed legislative privileges.

Referring to Lord Salisbury's justification of Parliament Mr. Gladstone said that that speech had become an extraordinary feature of English political history.

It was no longer an isolated expression of a single political incendiary. It was now adopted by his colleagues in Parliament and by the public.

It was an astounding intimation, which, under the veil of prophetic intimation, the law and authority of the land.

THE REDISTRIBUTION DEBATE

A DIVISION HAS NOT YET BEEN REACHED IN THE HOUSE.

Ministers Bower and Foster on Washington to Discuss Canadian Affairs with the British Minister—Mr. Bower's Home Rule Motion May Come Up on Monday.

OTTAWA, June 1.—The whole of today's session up to 11.40 to-night has been practically taken up with the continuation of the redistribution debate, and the vote on Mr. Laurier's amendment was not reached to-night as had been expected.

The debate was opened by Mr. Choquette and continued by Messrs. Dupont, Binfret, Desjardins, Monod, LeDuc, O'Brien and Edwards.

Mr. Desjardins made the speech of the day, making at least two good points: (1) That the popular vote of the Province of Quebec had always been Conservative, even when the Mackenzie Government was in power; and (2) that no change had been made in the boundaries of the constituencies since 1851, although the population and commerce of the Province had greatly changed in that time.

It was ridiculous, he said, to say that the Montreal vote was entitled to no representation that the Montreal vote was entitled to no representation that the Montreal vote was entitled to no representation.

Mr. Edwards made what was quite a speech for him, protesting against the redistribution of seats, and stating that it was done to put him out of public life and to carry out a threat made by his uncle, the late Sir Oliver Mowat, in 1880, that he (Edwards) would be put out of Parliament by Clarence Township being taken out of Russell and put into Prescott.

Mr. Bower's Home Rule Resolution. Mr. Bower's Home Rule Resolution was introduced, and he stated that he had issued an invitation to some 40 prominent Home Rulers to meet him in his committee room to-morrow afternoon at 5 o'clock to discuss his Home Rule resolution, which will probably come up on Monday.

OFF FOR WASHINGTON. The War Minister and Finance Minister leave for the United States to-day.

OTTAWA, June 1.—Hon. Mr. Bower and Hon. Mr. Foster left today for Washington, D.C., to discuss the Home Rule resolution, which will probably come up on Monday.

ONE OF THE MINOR MATTERS still open before the United States and Canada is the question of the American claim to the right of navigation in the St. Lawrence River.

Mr. Bower is expected here shortly in the capacity of agent to the Government to settle the St. Lawrence River question.

OTTAWA, June 1.—I intend resigning my seat in the Senate, said Senator Boulton this morning, "just as soon as I learn that Mr. Laurier has resigned his seat in the House."

"Do you intend to run on the Conservative ticket?" he was asked. "I am a Conservative, but I slightly opposed to the trade policy of the Government. I have no objection to the continuation of free trade, but I think it is a mistake to call it 'free trade'."
