Having a great number of very choice sleighs on hand yet, we have decided to give the public the benefit of a sweeping cut in prices. After that date every sleigh left goes up to its original price, viz : $30, $34, $36. Our price now will be $21, $23, $24.

Just think of it, not much more than half price for a first-class Hastings Sleigh. Now don't you people who have paid us from $26 to $36 feel dissatisfied for you have received good honest treatment as well as good goods and value for you money, and to you who have not bought do not procrastinate for want of money—your note is just as good to us. Neither let your feeble mind think you can do as well next year for there won't be a single Hastings Sleigh left in Wattord as we are contracting to ship all left to Saskatchewan where we can get double the price. Don't let your neighbors have all the bargains.

team put on the third degree. Among the lodges represented were officers of Petrolea, Brigden, Oil Springs, Wyoming, Watford, Mooretown, Point Edward, Port Huron, Toronto, Orillia, Arkona, Selkirk, Manitoba, Illinois, Michigan and Dakota. A great number of candidates were brought in and together were initiated into the mysteries of the order. Following the regular husiness a big

Following the regular business a big banquet was held, after which many splendid fraternal addresses ontining the growth of the order were given and a fine musical program much enjoyed.

The sleighing is much improved in this vicinity, owing to the recent snow storm. An attractive concert will be held in the Orange Hall, under the auspices of the Inwood Band. Miss Holm, elocut-ionist from Toronto, has been engaged. There will also be instrumentals and duets by Misses Hazel Atkin and Edna Campbell, pupils of Miss Beacom, and solos by Mrs. Roland. Also selections from the orchestra and band. from the orchestra and band.

Brooke Board of Health Meeting

The Brooke Board of Health held the first meeting of the season at Inwood last Saturday afternoon with Dr. Taylor and Reeve Annett present, the absent member being Dr. Martyn, of Alvinston. On motion of Dr. Taylor and seconded by Reeve Annett the latter was elected designed for the year chairman for the year.

The township clerk was elected secretary. The only business before the meeting was a communication from the Inwood Women's Institute asking the Board to lend their approval to a petition to the Provincial Board of Health recommend-Towncial board of Health recommended ing that the children attending the town-ship schools be under medical inspection. The two members of the Board present were not favorable to the petition so the communication was filed. The meeting then adjourned.
