

CONTENTS.

The relater receives a new name,	55
Description of a singular plain,	57
Conduct of a squaw towards the relater when sick,	61
The relater kills an Indian—trial in consequence thereof,	65 & 66
Conduct of an Indian,	71
The relater obtains leave of absence and departure,	74 & 75
Conduct of an Indian Queen,	78
Arrival at Detroit,	79
—— at Cataraque,	80
—— at Quebec,	83
—— at St. Nicola,	ib.
Moving scene between the relater and a beloved sister,	84 & 85
Joyful meeting of father and son after a long absence,	86
Conduct of Colonel Campbell,	87
Departure of the relater from Canada,	90
Arrival within the United States,	ib.
—— in New-Hampshire,	94
Appendix,	95
Of their persons, dress, &c.	97
Of their manners, &c. &c.	101
Of their method of reckoning time, &c.	104
Their mode of government, manner of conveying intelligence to other Tribes in alliance with them, &c.	106
Of their feasts and dances,	110
Of their Hunting, &c.	114
Description of their weapons for war, method of conducting their wars, &c.	125