

CHAP. XI.

A Snow-shoe Journey—Boating in Winter—Miseries of a thaw—Esquimaux River—Start in company with one man—Our costumes—Sleeping in the snow—Reach Port Neuf—Detention—Attempt to proceed in a small boat—Stopped by ice—Resume our snow-shoes—Arrive at Isle Jérémie—Wrecks on the Gulf of St Lawrence—Frost-bitten sailors—Start for Seven Islands—Pass Goodbout—Continue the voyage with Indians—Seven Islands—Salmon fisheries—Seal shooting—The Trapper—Anecdotes—Solitude—Relief—Departure for Tadoussac—The last voyage—Conclusion,

P. 286