THE BIBLICAL REPERTORY AND PRIN-CETON REVIEW. Edited by Rev. C.
Hodge, D D. July, 1861.

Philadelphia: P. Walker, 821 Chestnut st.
The July number of this able review has been received. The following is a list of the articles which it contains, viz: 1. The Kingdom of Christ. 2. Knowledge, Faith and Feeling, in their mutual Relations.—3. The Subjects of Baptism.—4. Motley's Dutch Republic.—5. Annals of the American Pulpit—6.
The General Assembly.

The first article is an extended form of the sermon of Rev. Dr. Yeomans at the opening of the late General Assembly at Philadelphia, and contains an able exposition of the subject in hand. The article on baptism is written with ability and clearness. The great point taken up is the identity of the church under the old dispensation and the new. We may give at another time an epitome of the argument followed by the writer. The article on "the General Assembly," which we presume is from the pen of Dr. Hodge, is principally occupied with a review of the action of the Assembly with reference to the state of the country. Dr.
Hodge was opposed to the action which the Assembly adopted, and the article of course reflects the same view. The writer acknowledges that the action of the South is unreasonable, ungrateful and wicked, and that it is the duty of every man to strengthen, sustain and encourage the Federal government. But while these are his private convictions, he was of opinion that it was not the duty of the Assembly to interfere.

FORTY YEARS EXPERIENCE IN SUNDAY SCHOOLS. By S. H Tyng, D D., Rector of St. George's Church, New York.

A. Stuechan & Co., Edinburgh; sold by D.
McLellan, Hamilton.

This is a remarkable little work, and shows what a powerful means of good the Sabbath school may be made by a devoted and persevering pastor. We are glad to see that the work has already had a very extensive circulation, both in America, and in Britain. It should be read by every pastor, and Sabbath school superintendent. It is written in an easy, familiar style, the several chapters having been in reality so many distinct letters, written to a friend who was a Sabbath school superintendent. It is calculated to give many useful hints as to the conduct of Sabbath schools, and to give encouragement to those who devote themselves to the maintenance and extension of these useful and important institutions.

THE SABBATH AND THE SANCTUARY.
By Rev. R Montearth.

This is the title of an able sermon by the Rev.
R. Montearth of Prince Albert, on a most important subject. We had marked a lengthened extract for insertion in our columns. It will appear in another number.
