“THE EXCELSIOR” No. 1 STAMP ALBUM.

ILLUSTRATED. SIXTH EDITION.

No. 1. Foolscap Quarto. Size, 8 $\frac{1}{2}$ x 7. Consists of 115 pages, with spaces for nearly 3000 stamps. Each page is illustrated with engravings of postage stamps, comprising in all illustrations of 200 rare and curious varieties. This book also contains a comprehensive index and a mass of general information, such as reigning sovereigns, population, capitals, dates of first issues of stamps of all the principal countries of the world. Bound in very superior quality of cloth, embossed and illuminated in gold. The printing and binding is all done in the very best manner, and on the same scale as the most expensive albums. Without any exaggeration, no other cheap album can be compared with this. It is ABSOLUTELY THE BEST SIXTY-CENT ALBUM PUBLISHED. A packet of 50 different stamps is given with each No. 1 Album. Price, postage paid, 60 cents.

“THE EXCELSIOR” No. 2 STAMP ALBUM.

ILLUSTRATED. SIXTH EDITION.

No. 2. Foolscap Quarto. Size, 8 $\frac{1}{2}$ x 7. Contains 272 pages, with spaces for about 6,000 stamps, having special sized spaces provided for odd sized and oblong stamps, such as Afghanistan, triangular Cape of Good Hope, Sweden (official), United States (Colonibus), etc., illustrated throughout with engravings of postage stamps. A mass of information is given as to reigning sovereigns, population, dates of first issues, also particulars of countries no longer issuing their own stamps. The book contains a complete index, is well guarded, and when filled with stamps it will lie perfectly flat. The binding is extremely handsome, being in cloth of excellent quality, illuminated in a most effective design in gold. A packet of 100 different stamps is given with each No. 2 Album. Price, postage paid, \$1.15. Supplementary leaves for affixing to the guards may be had. Price, 10c. per dozen, carriage paid.

“THE EXCELSIOR” No. 3 STAMP ALBUM.

ILLUSTRATED. THIRD EDITION.

This is an extremely handsome volume, of the popular oblong shape, bound in cloth, illuminated in gold and black in the highest style of workmanship. The quality of the paper is excellent, having been specially manufactured for these Albums. A series of eight excellent maps have been specially printed in colors for this work; and these, with about One Thousand beautiful engravings of postage stamps, form a valuable and attractive feature. We may say no pains or expense have been spared, and we doubt not that the enterprising spirit displayed in the production of such a work for the price of $2.00 will evoke from collectors a ready and cordial response and increased popularity for these already favorite books. Price, postage paid, $2.00.
