

Exchanges.

Among the most regular visitors to our sanctum this year have been the Abbey Student, Academic Herald, Acta Victoriona, Adelphean, Agnetian, Allisonia, Argosy, Bates' Student, Cap & Gown, College Spokesman, Collegian, Comet, Columbiad, Columbia, Echoes, Exponent, Fordham Monthly, Geneva Cabinet, Holy Cross Purple, King's Coll. Record, Manitoba College Journal, Mt. St. Mary's Record, Manhattan Quarterly, McGill Outlook, McMaster Univ. Monthly, Nazarene, Nazareth Chimes, Niagara Index, Niagara Rainbow, Notre Dame Scholastic, O. A. C. Review, O. N. C. Monthly, Ottawa Campus, Pharos, Prince of Wales Observer, Patrician, Presbyterian Coll. Journal, St. Ignatius Collegian, St. John's Record, St. Jerome's Schoolman, St. Mary's Chimes, Solanian, S. V. C. Index, Trinity Univ. Review, University Monthly, Victorian, Vox Wesleyana, Villa Shield, Wave, Xavier, Xaverian, Young Eagle.

Our commission for the scholastic year 1906-07 expires with this issue. We have encountered some criticism—which did us good—and much encouragement—for which we tried to show ourselves grateful. We have watched with interest the usually good work our exchanges have been doing; in many we could not withhold admiration for the thoroughness with which they threshed over some subjects, old as well as new. Altogether, this year with the exchanges has yielded no little profit. We wish our fellow ex-men a pleasant vacation, while we say “au revcir.”

Priorum Temporum Flores.

On Trinity Sunday, Alma Mater had a welcomed visit from Rev. Father Duncan Campbell, '90. He came up from St. Raphael's to preach at Fr. Collin's first mass what proved to be an eloquent sermon.

At the Athletic Meet, Victoria Day, we noticed, among others, the familiar faces of the Rev. Fathers J. J. Macdonell, '02; Jos. H. MacDonald, '03, and Richard Carey, '03, and of Messrs. Callaghan, '06, and Guilfoile, '10.

Messrs. Roderick Byrnes, '05; Louis Seguin, '06; William