THE BARBADOS MARKET.

Messrs. S. P. Musson, Son and Company, in their last report of the Barbados market, say: The cargo of the Kipling, which we reported in our last as having arrived with 162,000 feet of white pine, was sold at $26 for shippers and $21.50 for second quality, and we value another cargo of this description at similar prices. The schooner Frances A. Rice arrived to ourselves on May 24th with 130,000 feet spruce, which we sold at $21.03 for merchantable and $18.03 for second quality. These late cargoes of spruce have supplied present requirements, and we do not think the next arrivals will bring similar rates, as the crop is drawing to a close, when demand for spruce is considerably reduced. The steamer Orinoco brought 78,000 Gaspe shingles and 140,000 Cedar Laying. The former were sold at $6.50, and as our market is virtually bare of these, next arrivals will probably bring similar prices. The latter were imported for a dealer, who we understand payed $2.25 for them, as they were better than the ordinary. We think moderate arrivals of these would be worth from $2.15 to $2.20 according to quality. Dimension shingles are entirely out of stock, and a lot of these would do exceedingly well."
