OBITUARY.

DEATH OF THE REV. WM. RINTOUL, OF MONTREAL.

With sincere regret we have to announce the death of this excellent man, and faithful Minister of the Gospel. Mr. Rintoul preached in his own church on Sabbath, 31st ult. On the following day he left Montreal for Quebec, in order to supply the ordinances of Religion to a congregation at Metis below Quebec. On Tuesday he parted with some friends in Quebec in perfect health, and proceeded on his journey to Metis, but he was not destined to reach that place. He was taken very ill at Trois Pistoles. One of his sons came to his side from Montreal, accompanied by Dr. McLaggan of the 20th Regiment. But the hand of death was upon the sufferer, and neither filial affection nor the best medical treatment could arrest the fatal issue, and on Saturday, the 13th instant, Mr. Rintoul breathed his last. The disease is believed to have been Dysentery or Cholera, but the particulars have not yet been received. Mr. Rintoul was a native of Scotland. His first settlement as a Minister in connection with the Church of Scotland was in Maryburgh in Cumberland. He came to Canada, we believe, in 1831, and was for three years Minister of Saint Andrew's Church, Toronto. In 1834 he became Minister of Streetsville, where he continued for 14 years. The formation of Knox's College brought Mr. Rintoul into a new sphere of usefulness. For several sessions he was the Hebrew Professor in that Institution. About a year ago he was called to St. Gabriel's Church, Montreal, where he was much esteemed, and must be deeply lamented by his congregation, which was gradually but surely increasing under the faithful ministrations of their late Pastor. Mr. Rintoul was a zealous and faithful servant of his Heavenly Master, devoted to his work to an extent and with a consistency which few perhaps have attained. The warm friend of every religious and benevolent Institution, he was long a director of the Bible and Tract Societies of Toronto, and he rarely failed to come in from Streetsville to attend their anniversaries. In all the relations of life Mr. Rintoul was most exemplary; and it adds to the distress of this sudden bereavement, that Mrs. Rintoul and one of his children are absent on a visit to Scotland, and now probably on their return to Canada, where they must meet the sad tidings, that the head of the family has been suddenly removed in the middle of his days. For him there is no need for lament. His life, we believe, was "hid with Christ in God," and it would expand in glory! when the soul took its flight from the frail and dying body, and reached the abode of that Saviour, whose cause he delighted to plead.—Toronto Globe.
