THE WEEK

Mr. Geo. Bradley, of St. Kitts, has purchased the Ontario Philatelist and amalgamated it with the Stamp Reporter.

W. A. Beatty, of St. Catharines, will hereafter devote his entire time to the stamp business.

Canada enjoys as good a postal system as may be found anywhere and it will soon be without a peer.

The date of our November Special has been changed to November 16th. Remember the date. This number will have the largest circulation of any we have issued.

Next week we shall publish the list of charter members of the Canadian Philatelic Press Club. If you have not already sent in your name do so at once and be a charter member. The editor is acting secretary until the organization meeting.

A one inch adv in the next four issues will cost you 50c. This will include the big November Special.

This paper one year for only 10c.

The Scott Co., will issue a priced list of all new issues up to October. This decision is being well received by collectors in the U. S.

Many of our scribes are writing about the "worth full catalogue" stamp. Although some dealers are willing to allow from 10 to 50 per cent discount on the stamps they claim are worth full catalogue. My opinion is that a stamp is worth what it will bring irrespective of the catalogue quotations.

Old U. S. Revenues are selling better since the advent of the new issue. Omahas are not common in a used condition and as it is rumored that no more are to be printed, collectors should fill up their blanks at an early date.

Our new War Revenues are coming in new shades all the time, and new values and colors are being issued. It is rumored that the issue is to come perforated instead of rouletted as heretofore. Collectors should buy what they need at an early date.

Canadian postage stamps are selling for good prices in the U. S. and used Jubilees are in special demand.

The new Newfoundland stamps are being well received by collectors in general, and as they represent the present and future rulers of Great Britain and Colonies, no collector should neglect to secure this beautiful "portrait gallery" as some collectors term them.

Foreign revenues are not in very great demand at present and if collectors desire them, now is a good time to begin: while they are cheap.

U. S. adhesives are selling at about 50% below catalogue and if I am not mistaken the new prices in Scott's next catalogue will put them at about 40% lower than our 97-98 edition.
