

Institute for Young Ladies,

CONDUCTED BY THE

REV. DR. HAMILTON AND HIS DAUGHTERS,

53 MCGILL COLLEGE AVENUE,

MONTREAL.

THE Institute occupies a commodious Building in Oxford Terrace, McGill College Avenue, which is one of the finest and healthiest parts of the city.

The main object of this Institute is to give a solid and practical education. A portion of Scripture is read and explained every morning, as the first lesson of the day. Lectures on English Literature, Botany, &c., are given by the Principal, whose personal and unremitting attention is devoted to the School. Spelling, Writing, Composition, and Reading, are taught with much care. Lessons in Gymnastics are given on the improved system of Dr. Dio Lewis.

The Boarders are treated in all respects as members of the family, and much attention is bestowed on their health and manners, but especially on their moral and religious training.
