VOL. XXXVIII.

TORONTO, APRIL 16, 1892.

No. 16.
Whole No. 983.

FOSTER'S BOSS.

JOHN BULL (with Budget Speech in hand)—"In conclusion you say something about showing favors to those who show favors to you. Might I ask if this means that you propose to lower your tariff on British goods—or what?"

FOSTER—"It—er—means—ahem! excuse me; I'll have to consult this gentleman before I can say whether it means anything."
