

UNITED STATES

The Cincinnati Times, of the 4th instant, has this important piece of news:—"Intelligence has been received in this city this morning, by the steamer Emerald, that our troops are evacuating Corinth, and all the points in that vicinity south of the Tennessee river. All the stores there are being removed as fast as possible. This is consequently, we presume upon a threatened attack from the forces lately concentrated near Mobile."

A correspondent of the New York World gives a lamentable account of the effect of Gen. Pope's orders authorizing the plunder of the country. He states that the whole army has become a horde of banditti, robbing friend and foe, pillaging the inhabitants of every thing portable, leaving them neither cattle, furniture, clothing or food, desolating the face of the country as the barbarians of old did. The Union sentiment will be very strong where it has passed.

The Federal journals contain numerous statements of the satisfactory increase of recruiting; it is notorious that not one-tenth part of the 300,000 volunteers have been obtained, and that the women generally are the strongest opponents to their relatives joining the army. Every road and conveyance to Canada and the other British provinces are thronged with young men flying from the dreaded conscription.

The total male population of the loyal States east of the Rocky Mountains, between the ages of 18 and 45, and therefore liable to draft, is 4,500,000; of these, one-fourth, 1,125,000, are supposed to be physically fit for military service. There have been already furnished for the military and naval service of 600,000 men made in a great measure from those who ought to be exempted.

General Bell has brought Col. Turbin, of the 10th Illinois, to a court martial for the atrocities committed by his sanction at Athens; and dissolved the brigade which participated in them.

The Federal Secretary at War has issued a proclamation forbidding citizens of the United States liable to draft leaving the country, under severe penalties. Passes are to be required of all persons attempting to leave the United States. All who have left will be considered as deserters, and will be arrested on their return, and sent to the army, whether drawn or not; and rewards are offered for their apprehension.

Canoe, August 7.—A skirmish took place yesterday, near Point Pleasant, Missouri, between the citizens and State troops, in which it is reported that seven were killed on both sides. It seems that the citizens banded themselves together to resist the enrollment act; troops were sent from New Madrid to enforce the law, and hence the collision.

A correspondent of the N. Y. Times with McClellan's army complains that many of the Federal wounded in the late battles purposely inflicted their own injuries to escape from the service. We surmised this to be the case some weeks ago, from the character of the wounds. He says: "Such instances are more common than are imagined. Many are the men who have shot off their own fingers who are now loudly vaunting their 'valorous' deeds."

CONVENT,

ESTABLISHED IN HUNTINGDON, C. E.,
Under the direction of the Sisters of the Congregation of Notre Dame

THIS Institution will be opened for Boarders and Classes on the 2nd of September 1862. The course of Instruction will embrace the French and English languages, Writing, Arithmetic, Book-keeping, Geography, and the use of the Globes; Ancient and Modern History, Rhetoric, an insight into Chemistry and Philosophy, Astronomy, Botany, Geology, Conchology, Music, Drawing and Painting. Every kind of useful and ornamental Needle work will also be taught to the pupils. Differences of religion will be no obstacle to admission, provided the pupils conform to the general regulations of the house. No deduction, except for sickness, will be made in the terms which can be known at the Convent, or at the residence of the Rev. L. G. Gagnier in Huntingdon.

GRAND BAZAAR.

ON MONDAY THE 4th INSTANT,

THERE will be opened a GRAND BAZAAR at the SALLE D'ASYLE ST. JOSEPH, in aid of the Hospital, and of the Salle D'Asyle.

The Hospital deserves the favorable attention, and the sympathies of all charitably disposed persons. Besides sheltering numbers of the poor, the infirm and aged, it finds a home for the orphan. Its Orphan Department is the most extensive in Montreal, containing about two hundred and twenty children. The number last year was still greater, but from want of funds the Sisters have been compelled to reduce their establishment.

This Bazaar will be one of the most attractive ever offered to the public; and to the interesting exercises of the little children of the Salle D'Asyle will be added the attractions of a large and beautiful collection of objects for sale and raffle—many of which have been sent from Paris.

The Bazaar will be open throughout the week. At half-past three o'clock in the afternoon the proceedings will commence with the exercises of the children's classes. The doors will be open to ten o'clock.

Children unaccompanied by their parents or grown up relatives will not be admitted. Tickets of admission, which must be shown at the door, may be procured at the Salle D'Asyle.

MASSON COLLEGE,

AT TERREBONNE, NEAR MONTREAL.

THE object of this splendid Institution, is to give to the youth of this country a practical Education in both languages French and English. The Course of Instruction embraces the following branches, namely: Writing, Reading, English and French Grammar, Geography, History, Arithmetic, Book-keeping, Practical Geometry, Arithmetic, Agriculture, Drawing, Music, &c., &c.

COLLEGE OF ST. LAURENT.

NEAR MONTREAL.

1. This Institution is conducted by Religious priests and brothers, of the Congregation of the Holy Cross.

2. It comprises two kinds of teaching: 1st. Primary and Commercial, in a course of four years. This includes reading, writing, grammar and composition, arithmetic, the elements of history, ancient and modern geography, book-keeping, linear drawing, algebra, geometry, mensuration the elements of astronomy and of general literature; in a word, every branch of knowledge necessary to fit persons for occupations that do not require a classical education. The French and English languages are taught with equal care. 2nd. Classical studies, such as are usually made in the principal colleges of the country. This course comprises seven years, but pupils who are very zealous, or endowed with extraordinary ability, may go through it in six or even five years. Nevertheless before a pupil can be promoted to a superior class, he must prove by an oral examination and a written composition, that he is sufficiently acquainted with the various branches taught in the inferior class.

3. No pupil can be admitted to a course exclusively commercial, unless he has first acquired a correct knowledge of those branches usually taught in Primary Education.

4. No one can commence the Latin course until he writes a good hand, and is able to give a grammatical analysis of the parts of speech of his mother tongue.

5. Every pupil coming from another house of education must present a certificate of good conduct, signed by the Superior of that Institution.

6. There will be a course of religious instruction suited to the age and intelligence of the pupils.

7. In conformity with the rules of the Institution great care will be taken that the classical instruction is governed by the Catholic spirit, and a careful selection will be made of those authors best adapted to develop that spirit.

8. Every pupil coming from another house of education must present a certificate of good conduct, signed by the Superior of that Institution.

9. There will be a course of religious instruction suited to the age and intelligence of the pupils.

10. In conformity with the rules of the Institution great care will be taken that the classical instruction is governed by the Catholic spirit, and a careful selection will be made of those authors best adapted to develop that spirit.
