BOOKS FOR THE HOLIDAYS

Book of American Figure Painters

The most important Art Book ever made, a superb folio, 16 x 20 inches, containing specimens of the work of forty of the leading American Artists...

The most magnificent volume that has been issued yet in the "Book of American Figure Painters." The binding, the paper, and the type, leave nothing to desire.

The magnificent volume which J. B. Lippincott Company publishes under the title of "Book of American Figure Painters," both because of its matter and manner...

It would take too long to number the interesting and beautiful pictures in this magnificent volume.

It is now several weeks to Christmas, but we do not expect to see anything this season which will surpass the "Book of American Figure Painters."

In paper, printing and binding the "Book of American Figure Painters," is unsurpassed and quite beyond criticism.

Taken as a whole the splendid volume before us is a sumptuous work of Art.

CHARLES SCRIBNER'S SONS' Important New Books.

The Bucholz Family.

Sketches of Berlin Life by JULIUS STINDE. Translated from the forty-ninth German edition. 12mo, $1.25.

The author treats every phase of Berlin middle-class life, and his sketches are vigorous, realistic and true. The author's hilarity is always cheerful and elevating, and for an dulterated humor, for quiet, unobtrusive fun, commend us to this famous book.

Our Arctic Province, Alaska, and the Seal Islands.

By HENRY W. ELLIOTT. Illustrated by drawings from nature by the author, and maps. 1 vol. 8vo, $4.50.

Other books may still be written about Alaska, but it is not easy to understand how any one of them can ever exceed this one in interest, or in any way shake its authority as an accurate guide to "Our Arctic Province."

A History of the French Revolution.

By H. MORSE STEPHENS. In three volumes. Vol. I. ready. Containing a new preface to the American edition. Octavo, $2.50.

The enthusiasm and the labour have produced one of the best histories of that period, correct in compilation and pleasing in presentation; always historic and sometimes dramatic, and as impartial as it was possible for the author to be in describing a great people and the great crisis through which they passed.

The Huguenots and Henry of Navarre.

By Prof. HENRY M. BAIRD, author of the "History of the Rise of the Huguenots of France." 2 vols. 8vo, with maps, $5.

There is no work on the same theme in the English language compared to this. Prof. Baird is the only living American author worthy to compare with Irving, Prescott and Motley, as writers of the history of foreign countries.

Introduction to the Study of Dante.

Being a new edition of "Dante as Philosopher, Patriot and Poet, with an Analysis of the Divine Comedy, its Plot and Episodes." By VINCENZO BOTTA. 1 vol. 12mo, $1.50.

It is decidedly the best account of the poet that has appeared in the English language. It is careful, learned, discriminating and eloquent, written in terse and elegant English that is remarkable in the pen of an author not native to our soil.

A History of Greek Literature.

From the earliest period to the death of Demosthenes. By FRANK BYRON JEVONS, M.A. 1 vol. crown 8vo, $2.50.

It is beyond question the best history of Greek literature that has hitherto been published.

The Age of Electricity.

From Amber-Soul to Telephone. By PARK BENJAMIN. 1 vol. 12mo, $2.

By no means difficult to understand is Mr. Park Benjamin's work, and we recommend the "Age of Electricity" especially to those who call themselves well educated, but are as ignorant of the subject to-day as are the Italians who work in the trenches laying out the underground ways for the electric wires.

The Making of New England, 1580-1643.

By SAMUEL ADAMS DRAKE. With 241 illustrations and maps. 1 vol. 12mo, $1.50.

Not one reader out of a thousand will need any better book on our early history than this book, and young people in particular will find it far more readable and entertaining than the average story.

ANDOVER PUBLICATIONS.

Critical and Exegetical Commentaries, with New Translations, by James G. Murphy, LL.D., F.C.D., Professor of Hebrew, Belfast.

Genesis. With a Preface by J. P. THOMPSON, D.D., New York. 8vo, pp. xiv. and 519, $3. "The most valuable contribution that has for a long time been made to the many aids for the critical study of the Old Testament is Mr. Draper's republication of Dr. Murphy on Genesis, in one octavo volume."

Exodus. With a New Translation. 8vo., pp. 385, $2.50. "Thus far nothing has appeared in this country for half a century on the first two books of the Pentateuch so valuable as the present two volumes on Genesis and Exodus."

Leviticus. With a New Translation. 8vo., pp. 318, $2.25. "A masterly treatment of the subject of propitiation and purification as illustrated by the Book of Leviticus."

Psalms. With a New Translation. 8vo, pp. viii. and 694, $3.50.

"It is, on the whole, one of the best expositions of the Psalms accessible for popular instruction, and a valuable auxiliary to the work of preachers and teachers."

The Book of Daniel, or the Second Volume of Prophecy; with a preliminary sketch of antecedent prophecy. 12mo, pp: vii., 200, $1.25.

"If any one desires to see Daniel set forth pointedly, pithily, and profitably, let him take this modest volume."

OTHER VALUABLE COMMENTARIES.

Ellicott, Bishop, C.J., on Galatians, $1.25. Ephesians, $1.25; Thessalonians, $1.25. Phil. Col., and Philemon, $1.75.

The Pastoral Epistles, $1.75. The whole set in two volumes, $6.75.

The Commentaries of Prof. Ellicott belong to the first class of critical writings of the New Testament. The author is an able, independent, and candid critic; his learning is full and accurate, and his judgment sound and discriminating.

Anderson on the Minor Prophets, $3. Jeremiah and Lamentations, $2.25. Ezekiel, $1.75.

"We have met with no so satisfactory a commentary on this part of the prophetic Scripture."

Lightfoot on Galatians, $3. Perowne on the Psalms, 2 vols., $6.75.

It comprises in itself more excellences than any other commentary on the Psalms in any language, and we know of no single commentary in a German language which, all things considered, is preferable to it.

Stuart on Romans, $1.75; Hebrews, $1.75. 1 Timothy, $1.50; Ecclesiastes, $1.25.

The Commentaries of Professor Stuart abide the test of time. They contain so much thorough discussion of doctrinal points, so much valuable criticism on pregnant words, and such an earnest religious spirit, that they must live for generations as a part of the apparatus for the Biblical student.

The Book of Knob. Translated from the Ethiopic, with Notes. By Prof. GEORGE H. SCHODDE. $1.75.
