

TREATY ON EXTRADITION BETWEEN
CANADA AND THE REPUBLIC OF THE PHILIPPINES

Canada and the Republic of the Philippines,

DESIRING to make more effective the co-operation of the two countries in the suppression of crime by concluding a treaty on extradition,

HAVE AGREED as follows:

ARTICLE 1

Obligation to Extradite

Each Contracting State agrees to extradite to the other, in accordance with the provisions of this Treaty, any person who is wanted for prosecution or the imposition or enforcement of a sentence in the Requesting State for an extraditable offence.

Extraditable Offences

1. For the purpose of this Treaty, extradition shall be granted for acts or omissions which are punishable under the laws of both Contracting States by imprisonment or other deprivation of liberty for a maximum period of at least one year or by a more severe penalty. Where the request for extradition relates to a person convicted of such an offence who is wanted for the enforcement of a sentence of imprisonment or other deprivation of liberty, extradition shall be granted only if a period of at least six months of the penalty remains to be served.
2. For the purpose of this Article:
 - a) it shall not matter whether the laws of the Contracting States place the acts or omissions constituting the offence within the same category of offence or denominate the offence by different terminology;
 - b) the totality of the acts or omissions alleged against the person whose extradition is requested shall be taken into account in determining the constituent elements of the offence in the Requested State.
3. Subject to paragraph 1, an offence of a fiscal character is an extraditable offence.
4. If the request for extradition relates to a number of offences, each of which is punishable under the laws of both States, but some of which do not meet the other requirements of paragraph 1, the Requested State may also grant extradition for such offences.
