

4. The Delegation of the People's Republic of Poland cannot agree with the contents of Article 6 of the Buenos Aires Convention, and with the assignment of new duties to the I.F.R.B.

Until such a time as this matter is finally considered and settled at the Ordinary Radio Conference, the People's Republic of Poland leaves open the question of accepting Article 6 of the International Telecommunication Convention of Buenos Aires.

5. The People's Republic of Poland will not consider itself bound by the provisions of Article 5, paragraph 12, sub-paragraph b) 1, if, on the basis of this Article, the Administrative Council concludes any agreements running counter to the interests of the People's Republic of Poland.

6. In signing this International Telecommunication Convention, the Delegation of the People's Republic of Poland reserves for its Government the right to make any future additional reservations which may appear necessary with regard to the Convention and all its annexes, before final ratification thereof by the People's Republic of Poland.

XXIII

For the Federal German Republic:

In regard to the reservations of some delegations concerning Germany, the Delegation of the Federal German Republic formally declares that the Government of the Federal German Republic is the only legally constituted Government able to speak in the name of Germany and to represent the German people in international affairs.

XXIV

For the Ukrainian Soviet Socialist Republic:

TAKING INTO ACCOUNT THE FACT that under Article 47 of the Radio Regulations, supplementing the Telecommunication Convention, the entry into force of the most substantial part of those Regulations is made dependent on the decisions to be taken by the future Special Administrative Conference, mentioned in that Article; and that in adoption of the decisions taken in 1951 by the Extraordinary Administrative Radio Conference (E.A.R.C.), the

BEARING IN MIND
