

ARTICLE 2

(1) Each contracting party grants to the other contracting party the rights specified in the present Agreement for the purpose of establishing the air services to be operated by virtue of the said Agreement on the routes specified in the appropriate Section of the Schedule thereto (hereinafter called "the agreed services" and "the specified routes").

(2) Subject to the provisions of the present Agreement, the airlines designated by each contracting party shall enjoy, while operating an agreed service on a specified route, the following privileges:—

- (a) to fly without landing across the territory of the other contracting party;
- (b) to make stops in the said territory for non-traffic purposes; and
- (c) to make stops in the said territory at the points specified for that route in the Schedule to the present Agreement for the purpose of putting down and taking on international traffic in passengers, cargo and mail coming from or destined for other points so specified.

(3) Nothing in paragraph (2) of this Article shall be deemed to confer on the airlines of one contracting party the privilege of taking up, in the territory of the other contracting party, passengers, cargo or mail carried for remuneration or hire and destined for another point in the territory of that other contracting party.

ARTICLE 3

(1) Each contracting party shall have the right to designate in writing to the other contracting party one or more airlines for the purpose of operating the agreed services on the specified routes.

(2) Each contracting party shall have the right by written notification to the other contracting party to withdraw the designation of an airline and to substitute the designation of another airline.

(3) On receipt of the designation, the other contracting party shall, subject to the provisions of paragraphs (4) and (5) of this Article, without delay grant to the airline or airlines designated the appropriate operating authorization.

(4) The aeronautical authorities of one contracting party may require an airline designated by the other contracting party to satisfy them that it is qualified to fulfil the conditions prescribed under the laws and regulations normally and reasonably applied by them in conformity with the provisions of the Convention to the operation of international commercial air services.

(5) Each contracting party shall have the right to refuse to accept the designation of an airline and to withhold or revoke the grant to an airline of the privileges specified in paragraph (2) of Article 2 of the present Agreement or to
