MY DEAR DR. ADAMSON;

In expressing the wish of those whose names are subscribed to the accompanying Paper, that you would kindly consent to the publication of your eloquent and impressive Sermon delivered in the Cathedral on Wednesday last, being the day set apart for humiliation and fasting on account of the War between our Country and Russia, I at the same time beg leave to enclose the sum of £40 being the amount which these Gentlemen have coupled with their request for its publication, and which I have much pleasure in handing to you.

I have the honor to be,

Dear Sir,

Your's truly,

EDWD. BOWEN.

Quebec, 29th April, 1854.

To the Reverend

W. AGAR ADAMSON, D. C. L.
