

LADIES' DAY

Tuesday afternoon was Ladies' Day, and in unusually large numbers they assembled at the mass meeting of the Women's Missionary Aid Societies, representatives being present from Leicester, Salem, the Highlands, and the Centre. Mrs. J. Alex. Christie, president of the local society, presided. After devotional exercises, Mrs. J. G. Harding gave an interesting and inspiring Historical Sketch of the Amherst Missionary Society. Mrs. Harding is one of the oldest members of the society, a lady, who has been closely identified with its growth through all its years, and her earnestness in mission work has been a great factor in the growth of the society here.

MISSIONARY ADDRESS BY REV. D. E. HATT, B. A.

Rev. D. E. Hatt, B. A., of Dorchester, N. B., recently returned from the West, delivered an address on North West Missions. Rev. Mr. Hatt was long enough in the West to become imbued with the enthusiasm of that great country and in his address imparted much of his enthusiasm to his hearers, who were greatly impressed with the needs of that section of our fair Canada. A generous collection was secured for the North-West Mission.

CHURCH REUNION.

Tuesday evening from 5.30 to 7 the Ladies of the Aid Society and the "Don't worry, Bible Class" served tea to a large number of the congregation. This part of the program like all the rest was very successful.

Then followed at 8 p. m. a service which will linger very long in the memory of all who were present. It was designated most fittingly as Centennial Night.

It was a service that called up many old and sacred memories, that stirred the most sluggish imagination, and made us feel that we had back of us a spiritual ancestry of which we were not ashamed.

CENTENNIAL NIGHT.

The Historical sketch of the Church was prepared and read by Dr. Steele, the Pastor Emeritus. We were fortunate in having as our historian one who has been so closely identified with the church for a period of 43 years
