urkey Says Movement of Russian Munitions Will Be

BERLIN, Feb. 19 (By Wireless to Sayville).—Included in the items of news given out today by the Overseas News Agency are the following: "Constantinopie reports that the Greek Government, on representations made to it, has agreed to prevent the movement of Russian ammunition by way of Salonika.

"Amsterdam reports that the boat service from Rotterdam and Flushing to London has been discontinued. Dutch shipowners have asked the Netherlands Government to exclude for a period of one year from Dutch ports all British steamers which during these days fly neutral flags. Dutch steamers bound for America are to sail around Scotland."

The palatial Algonquin Hotel, newly constructed, absolutely fireproof in every respect, overlooking the famous Passamaquoddy Bay, with its worldwide reputation, golf links, and salt sea bathing, makes this resort one of the most attractive today in America. The new concrete, fireproof hotel stands on a site of 28,000 feet, has accommodation for 250 guests. The dining-room measures 41 1-2 x 112 feet, the lounge room 26 1-2 x 89 1-2 feet, the drawing-room 27 x 38 1-2 feet. There is also a children's dining-room and a very cosy smaking-room. The hotel also contains 97 bedrooms with private baths and 22 adjoining rooms with private lavatories. This hotel has all the acsessories to afford every comfort to the most fastidious tourist.

This famous resort is frequented by the most prominent people in America on account of the wonderful opportunities which it affords them, such as salt sea bathing, canceling, yachting, motor bating, fishing, also the celebrated 18-bele. 7000 yard golf course, which is secend to hone in the world.

There is also the famous new Casino, providing all modern indoor ames and a high-class ballroom with excellent music, affording the guests the opportunity to dance whenever they desire.

The Algonquin Hotel is open from about June 15th to September 15th, and any person contemplating spending the summer at this fashionable resort should make application at once for hotel accemmodation to the manager at St. Andrews, and any further information or booklets on this resort may be obtained by applying to Mr. M. G. Murphy, D.P.A.. Canadian Pacific Railway, Toronto.

Sunday Magazine Reading

MR. HEARST AT HOME

You may know all about Premier Hearst's public life, his career right up to the time he opened his first legislative assembly the other day. But you may not know anything about his home life, his hobbies, his favorite things in life, and his habits. The Sunday World will endeavor to set them forth for you, with, by the way, some interesting pictures.

Do you know the chap who makes every nickel ring like a golden sovereign? Who buys the things that cost the most and look the best in the open, and who eats at a "one-arm" lumb when no one is looking on? Read about him.

COL. SWINTON WRITES OF WAR KITES

The story of the Swinton set next Sunday deals in a vivid, vital way with war ballooms and kites. It is a story of war life painted in red words.

A page of breezy pictures and sprightly description on the promises the milliners are making for their share of after-Lenten life.

Some of the other articles in the Magazine and other sections of The Sunday World are: "Foronto's Need/for a Rat-Swatting Campaign," "Enough Power in Rivers of Northern Ontario to Turn Wheels of Continent," "The Oddest Hospital in the City," "The Eight Brave Belgians
Who Held Up a Big German Force" and many columns more of bright reading matter.

The Picture Parts of the Paper

The best of the local pictures in the two Illustrated Sections this coming Sunday is one of the annual snowball fight between Science and Arts men at Varsity. It's a spirited study. Another photo is "The Golden Age" Company at the Alexandra. If you were one of the many who worked hard for this show, you will certainly want to save the fine big photo. There is a page of delightful art studies that are appropriate to late winter. The war photos in this issue are exceptionally fine. There are more than thirty live views of the many sides of the big conflict. The Canadian and English photos are prominent in numbers.

Special Motor Section

The Spring news for motorists is replete with many points of keen interest. This special section sets them forth, tells of the new designs, the new accessorles, the improvements of one sort and the other, tells what you want to hear if you are a motorist, or going to become one.

For Thoughtful People

There is a column on the Editorial Page of There is a column on the Editorial Page of The Sunday World that is for the spiritually-minded, for the people who read deeply and think profoundly. It is a common-sense column, and yet is not commonplace. "Crusts and Crumbs" is the title. You may not always be one with Albert Ernest Stafford, but you will be held by what he says. Turn to this column Sunday.
