

Q. Have you any further evidence of it?

A. Yes, in the words at the close of each epistle: "Hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches."

Q. Why does St. John say, "Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear?"

A. The blessing is to the faithful messenger, and the faithful people.—Neh. viii, 1-8.

Q. What is the meaning of Alpha and Omega?

A. They are the first and last letters of the Greek alphabet, and signify: Before Me was none other God, neither shall there be after Me. I am All in All.

Q. Where were the seven Churches?

A. In Asia Minor, near Patmos.

Q. Where in this chapter is Christ shewn to be King?

A. In the 5th verse,—“The Prince of the Kings of the earth.”

Q. Where as High Priest?

A. In verse 13, clothed with the High Priest's long garment and golden girdle.

Q. Why are the seven churches called “candlesticks?”

A. Because they are designed to receive and impart light.

Q. Why are they said to be golden?

A. To shew their value in the sight of God.—Zech. iv., 11-14.

Q. What does the Glorified Saviour make His people to become?

A. Kings and priests unto God His Father.
