

foundations of the earth were laid and all the sons of God shouted for joy. The accomplishment of this mighty task depends largely upon the unity of the people of God. It was for this unity that our Lord prayed. For this unity believers should pray most devoutly; they should do all in their power to bring it about. If this unity is attained Christ must occupy His rightful place in the church as a whole and in each one of its members. Let Him be sole Prophet, Priest, and King; let His self-sacrificing love be the inspiration of every believing heart, and then we shall soon have the true church of Christ on earth, and we shall speedily see the whole world redeemed.

At the Federation Conference one speaker called attention to the fact that there was a time when representatives of all the tribes of Israel, men of war that could keep rank, came with a perfect heart to Hebron to make David king over all Israel. And all the rest also of Israel were of one heart to make David king. Tribal rivalries and dissensions and jealousies gave way before the national sentiment. Under David's reign the kingdom extended from Damascus to the river of Egypt. What is needed now on the part of those who would make Jesus King is that they forget all differences and all dissensions and unite. By so doing they will hasten the time when great voices shall be heard in heaven saying, "The kingdom of the world is become the kingdom of our Lord and of His Christ, and He shall reign forever and ever."
