Few Clouds on Labor Horizon.

OTTAWA, Sept. 2.—(Special.)—Labor Day this year, according to the labor department, saw fewer strikes thruout industrial Canada than the holiday has witnessed for several years past. The industrial disturbances of July were not evident in August and at the present time there is not an industrial dispute or strike of any great import in the entire country.

The most important, perhaps, is the difference in the Porcupine district, which involves a thousand men. An arbitration board has been appointed, however, and an amicable settlement is looked forward to.

A cable from Cherbourg announces that the White Star Liner "Olympic" sailed at 7 p.m. yesterday for New York, with 1215 cabin passengers, paralleling her own carrying record on the August voyage westbound last year—these records being far and away the largest number of cabin passengers ever carried across the Atlantic on one steamer.

After her recent arrival from Belfast, the "Olympic" was only 25 hours at her pier, a new record for coaling and provisioning the largest ship in the world.
