

EXHIBITION AT ARENA TONIGHT

Stewartsons of Ottawa Play Toronto—Great Scramble for Amateur Stars

Notes.

Stewartsons, the crack Ottawa amateur team, play T.R. & A.A. an exhibition game at the Arena tonight, and Toronto fans are looking for the black and white squad to turn the same trick as St. Michaels did last Saturday.

The Toronto team has gathered together a strong seven under their belts they should just about do. Reports from Ottawa yesterday had the St. Michaels brothers have jumped the Stewartsons and have gone over to New Edinburgh. The George boys were counted on to help the St. Michaels to land the interprovincial honors this year and their loss will be felt. There is a wealth of good amateur players in Ottawa, and the Stewartsons will have no trouble in filling their places.

Big Frank Hoffmann will be counted on to stop the rushes of the speedy Ottawa boys, and with Jack Hunter as his partner Stewartsons will find it a big order to get by these two. Addition will be in the nets for Toronto. Alex. Bennett has secured permission from the O.H.A. to play for Toronto tonight and will be at rover. Gordon Mackling is the centre man, and Brown and Hill will be the wing men.

With the opening of the season only a short distance away the scramble for the interprovincial stars is in full swing. It is more than likely that the Toronto team will go over to Parkdale, and if this goes through St. Michaels will be the first team to play in the city.

Gordon Mackling, Frank Rankin and Gordon Mackling are the men mentioned, and if the St. Michaels and their team will be just about strong enough to land the honors.

Gordon Mackling has been turning out with Toronto every night and he likes them. It is more than likely that he will stay, and with Alex. Bennett also helping Toronto out they will be strong. Alex. Bennett is the most talked-of player at the present time, and while he is down to Toronto if they can catch it up with the Canoe Club.

St. Michaels' senior team in town sure of their men right at the present moment, and there are odds to be some big changes before the first game. The St. Michaels have been turning out a classy bunch at their practices, and they seem to be more sure of their candidates than any other local club.

The Toronto Canoe Club have tried out several of their senior players at several places, but they are trying to get a good centre to play for them.

St. Michaels look good with the bunch that have been turning out for them, but with the rumor of the jump of the St. Michaels stars they are liable to have several positions left unfilled.

Billy Smith of the Stewartsons received a big offer from the Sydney Club yesterday, but will stick with the Ottawa managers.

Manager Nicholson of the Tecumseh is very much peeved over the Ottawa criticism of his hockey club and wants to see any amount that his secretary will best Ottawa. Go to it, Billy. If you defeat Ottawa we will all be with you.

New York, Boston and Cobalt teams are trying to arrange games with St. Michaels.

Wally Young says that the Stewartsons are "the best team what is," and predicts a triumph for the Toronto tonight. Young said the same thing about New Edinburgh, and just look what St. Michaels did to them.

Ray Marchand will have to hustle for his place in goal in Hamilton tonight. The St. Michaels are expected to be in goal, and a well-known Hamilton goalkeeper is out for the place. In the old days Marchand was some one.

Chas. Stewart is captain of the Kingston Collegiate Junior O.H.A. team. A. T. Hatch is president, E. O. Sitter is manager, and J. W. Kelley is secretary-treasurer.

Local lovers of the great winter game will have their first chance to look the St. Michaels over when Wanderers and Canadiens play an exhibition game at the Arena. The game will be played under N.H.A. rules and with the two teams that are classed as the excellent in the pro game it should give Toronto fans a good idea of what they will be handed all winter.

Both Montreal teams have been working hard all week and should be in good shape when they cross sticks here. The Wanderers have a collection of stars, and the Canadiens are expected to be the early season doers and favorites for the N.H.A. title.

In group No. 11, Intermediate O.H.A., Owen Sound will play at Winton on Jan. 20, and Winton at Owen Sound on Jan. 23. The winner will play at Mount Forest on Jan. 27, and at the winner's on Jan. 31.

The following comes from Montreal: Hyland is not so badly hurt as has been made out, and there is little fear that he will not be able to play at the beginning of the season.

The two teams leave for Grand Trunk Sunday morning. Wanderers return Saturday night, and the Canadiens stay till after Christmas.
