Chairman Shinnick of the works committee will enter upon a vigorous policy of road improvement during the coming season, and one of the outstanding planks of the council this year will be the placing of Main-street in a first-class condition. Coming as it does under the division set apart for the motor league competition and the good roads part, the main thorofare thru the town ought this year to be placed in the pink of condition. The road, from what is commonly known as "Dawe's Road" corner to the junction of Main-street and the Kingston-road is said to be the most traveled thorofare in York County. The G.T.R. switch from the yards to the Dannforth-avenue, built to accommodate the Toronto Type Foundry, is being extensively used for shunting purposes and proves a great convenience.

the position of ruler of the Cammorristi, and Alfano is declared to be the slayer of his rival. The pretender was lured to a forest, where he was stabbed to death, it is alleged, by Alfano and other conspirators.

Then the wife of Cuocola was condemned. Alfano and his men, it is charged, called at the Cuocola home and when the woman opened the door she was stabbed with stillettos a dozen times.

'Ine murders spurred the gendarmes of Naples to extraordinary activities. Alfano and his associates, always protected by the far-reaching Cammo secmed immune from prosecution. In-deed, the bandit was regarded by the populace as a demi-god, possessed of mystic powers, free to roam at will unharmed because enveloped some divine authority, invulnerable to bullets, and impossible to capture. With its stronghold at Naples, the Cammorra had branches in all directions and carried on systematic terror-ism, robberies, blackmail and other forms of crime, a huge and fine spun web with many victims, which was directed always by Alfano, and which always safeguarded him from misadventure. Then suddenly Alfano disappeared.
