Ward, in which the assessors are now working, especially in the northern part of the ward, but it is not anticipated that the percentage of reduction in the Third Ward will be so great, as there is less vacant land in the ward, and the increase in personal assessment on valuable central property will go a long way towards equalling the reductions in the other districts of the ward. There is every indication that the total reduction in the assessment for 1897 will approach the sum stated by The World some time since, viz., $10,000,000. This will give an assessment of between $131,000,000 and $132,000,000. Which will be pretty good security for a net outstanding debenture debt, inclusive of the debt incurred for waterworks purposes, which is revenue-producing and self-sustaining, of $17,000,000.

It will also be gratifying to owners of real estate to learn that in the four wards, Nos. 1, 2, 5 and 6, the assessory returns show an increase of upwards of $1000 in population.

Reductions in Sixth Ward Assessment.

The Court of Revision continued its labors with the assessment for No. 6 Ward yesterday morning. As on the previous day, very few large reductions were made. A reduction of $100 per acre was made on an assessment of $600 on vacant land on the northside of Bloor-street, near Pauline-ayenue, and the Toronto Land and Investment Co.'s assessment of the Galena oll works on Royce-avenue was reduced by $1 per foot on vacant jots on Brockavenue and $2 per foot on north side of Bloor-street. The assessment of the Galena oll works on Royce-avenue was reduced from $10,000 to $8000, as the buildings are incomplete. Reductions were also made on a number of buildings, where the value had depreciated.
