

The single-breasted sack, the double-breasted sack and the cutaway (or walking coat) are the only styles for business wear. These special advantages are for your own consideration.

We have the latest and best in each style-but only suggest that stout men avoid double-breasted coats, and that small men try the cutaway.

We are showing an unusually fine line of single and double - breasted sacks, in small neat dark patterns, checks, plaids and stripes and plain effects, to suit tall, short, stout and normal figures, all sizes-10.00 and 12.00.

"A Greek Slave."

A most elaborate production of London's greatest comic opera success, "A Greek Slave," will be given at the Grand for three nights, opening Thursday evening. This opera is the latest offering of George Edwardes, and competent crities, both in England and America, have pronounced it the best of all of his pleces. It is light and gay, brimful of tuneful melodies, and rich in wit. For nearly two years it drew large audiences to Daly's Theatre, London, and since its autroduction in New York last fall has captivated the lovers of good opera in this country. The librettist has taken for the theme of his story a tale of Rome in the days of Nero. Of course, the plot is none too heavy but sufficiently strong to give a score of principais ciever opportunities to display their abilities. Of the 100 people used to interpret the opera, Miss Dorothy Morton, in the most pretentious role, that of "Mala," has achieved the greatest success.

"Arizona" Next Week,

It is unusual for any important and highpriced theatrical attraction to play two engagements in Toronto within three months'
time, but that is exactly what "Arizona,"
Augustus Thomas' beautiful drama of Western life, will do. Toronto received Mr.
Thomas' play and the clever players who presented it with such conspicuous favor last November that Mr. Sheppard straight

By the cancellation of other dates, Messrs.
La Shelle and Hamlin have arranged to

Monday night. The advance sale of seats

New Name for De Pachmann.

A novelty in the way of a descriptive phrase is always welcome. Commentators have perforce been calling Vladimir de Pachmann "the wizard of the planoforte" for several seasons now. The writer who recently invented a new one, "the prima donna of the plano," is a public benefactor in his way, because De Pachmann, altho he is no lady, certainly does make the plano sing in a marvelously melodius way. At the Worcester festival of last autumn a distinguished critic who was present found a rare subject for description when he compared the lovely tone coloring of the Russian planist with the gloriously votical qualities of Marcella Sembrich. De Pachmann's recital at Massey Hall next Monday night will be the first of a series of grand concerts, at which such great aritiss as Plancon, Dohnanyi, Nordica, Schumann-Heink and others will appear. It will be seen here next week, and the sale for the engagement opened this morning. The other musical comedy is "By the Sad Sea Waves." Both of these were seen here at high prices last season.

He appeared broken down and listless, and had appeared broken down and listless, and had the haggard look of a madman. After the reading of the indictment, a special jury to decide on the special plea put up by the defence, of mental incapacity to be defendant in a criminal trial, was sworn.

Dr. Villeneuve was called to the witness box. He had examined the prisoner, and found him unable to suffer at the present moment a trial by jury, or any trial. Dr. Barolet deposed likewise.

After an eloquent charge by Hon. Judge Ouimet, the jury rendered a verdict without leaving the room to the effect that Olivier is not at the present moment in a fit mental state to suffer trial for murder.
