Live Stock Markets. EAST BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 9 .-Cattle—In the absence of sale cattle there was no change in the position of the market. Calves were in light supply, fair demand and higher; choice to extra veal calves, $7 50 to $8; good to choice, $7 to $7 50; heavy fed steer calves, well fed, $4 50 to $5; common to heavy fed, $3 to $4. Sheep and lambs— The total offerings were 21 loads, including three loads left over; the market was rather quiet and only part of the offerings were sold; lambs, choice to extra, were quotable at $5 30 to $5 40, the outside figure extreme; good to choice, $5 to $5 25; common to fair. $4 50 to $5; sheep were steady under fair demand; choice to extra, $4 25 to $4 50; good to choice, $4 to $4 25; common to fair, $3 to $3 75; Canada lambs were nominally unchanged, 3 loads arrived too late for the market. Hogs-The total offerings were 58 loads, including 13 loads left over; heavy were quotable at $3 50 to $3 60; medium, $3 50 to $3 55; Yorkers, $3 40 to $3 50; pigs, $3 40 to $3 45; roughs, $3 10 to $3 25; stags, $2 50 to $3; the market was lower by 5c to 10c and very duli, there being a very light demand; on the close the basis of Yorker prices was $3 45, with a few sales at $3 40; there were about 15 loads of hogs left over at the close, which was weak and irregular.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Beeves—Receipts, 3,548; market opened dull; prices fell off 10c to 15c; closed heavy; 15 cars unsold; steers, $4 to $5 30; extras, $5 40; oxen and stags, $3 to $4 75; bulls, $2 50 to $3 10; cows, $1 60 to $3 50. Cables lower; live cattle 104c to 114c; refrigerator beef, 94c per lb. Shipments, 610 cattle and 8,000 quarters of beef. Calves—Receipts, 1,802: veals, 15c to 25c higher; grassers, firm; all sold; yeals, $5 to $8 50; grassers. $3 50 to $4; fed calves, $4 to $5; 1 car westerns, $3 75. Sheep and lambs-Receipts, 11,541; sheep slow; good stock steady; prime to choice lambs steady; others very dull and lower; sheep, $3 to $4 50; no choice here; lambs, $5 25 to $5 80; general sales, $5 25 to $5 70. Hogs-Receipts, 10,635; market dull, at $3 70 to $3 85.

MONTREAL, Nov. 7.-In export live stock circles business has been rather quiet during the last few days, but this week promises to be a busy one, as there are fifteen vessels advertised to sail between now and Saturday. Cable advices today from London were again of a more encouraging character, with further advances in prices for both cattle and sheep. On the other hand cables from Liverpool were quite the reverse in tone, and noted a slight decline in values from a week ago. The ocean freight market is quiet. Liverpool rates, 35s to 37s 6d; London, 27s 6d to 30s; Glasgow, 40s. The receipts of cattle at the East End Abattoir Market this morning were somewhat larger than on last Thursday, and a fairly active trade was done; market steady and prices show no important change. Really choice butchers' stock continue scarce, for which buyers would no doubt pay 41/2c willingly. The best cattle offeerd today sold at 41/2c, and the bulk of the sales were made at from 3c to 4c per lb, live weight. There continues to be a steady demand for stockers for shipment to Buffalo, and a number were picked up at 2c for bulls, 21/4c to 21/2c for heifers, and 23/4c to 3c for steers. There were about 300 sheep on the market, for which the demand was only fair, but prices were sustained. A few of the best were taken for shipping purposes at 3c to 31/4c, and butchers paid from 2½c to 3c per lb, live weight. The offerings of lambs were $10 head; demand good; trade active at 2½c to 4½c lb, live weight. Calves— Only 25 offered; demand fair, at $2 to $10 each, as to size and quality. At the Grand Trunk Stock Yards, at Point St. Charles, there was a fair supply of live hogs; selected sold at $4 40; heavy fat at $4 25; light weights at $4, and stags at $2 for 100 lbs.

CHICAGO, Nov. 9 .- Receipts of cattle were heavy today, and buyers forced prices down, sales being slow at reduced figures; sales were on a basis of $3 90 to $4 25 for very common native beef steers, up to $5 to $5 50 for good to strictly choice spring beeves, with the bulk of cattle good for $4 75 to $5 25; the average quality was only fair; there was a fair stocker and feeder trade at easier prices, and butchers' and canners' cattle were fairly active at the reduced prices; calves sold largely at $4 to $5 25; straight Texans sold largely at $3 40 to $3 70, and cattle from the western ranges sold chiefly at $4 30 to $4 75 for steers. Receipts of hogs were exceptionally heavy; prices 5c to 10c lower; hogs sold at an extreme range of $3 15 to $3 65; prime heavy going at the top, and sales were largely at $3 40 to $3 55; this was the lowest day of the season; pigs sold at $3 15 to $4.40. Offerings of sheep and lambs were large, but a good demand prevented any general break in prices, though considerable lots were weaker; sheep sold all the way from $2.25 to $2 75 for inferior lots, up to $4 25 to $4 50 for good to choice flocks, westerns fetching $3 50 to $4 45, and yearlings, $4 40 to $4 50; lambs were wanted at $4 50 for common, up to $5 40 to $5 65 for the best, range flocks fetching $450 to $5 25. Receipts-Cattle, 22,000; hogs, 0,000; sheep, 18,000.

LONDON AND LIVERPOOL. London, Nov. 7 .- There was a much better feeling in the trade, and as supplies were not excessive, prices generally ruled higher. On the whole the market was firmer, and best States cattle sold 1/2c up, at 11%c; Canadians, 1/2c, at 10c, and Argentine 1c, at 101/2c. Canadian and Argentine sheep sold at Liverpool, Nov. 7 .- The supply of cattle was heavy and prices ruled lower, choice Canadian selling at 91/2c. There were no sheep offered. A private cable received from Liverpool quoted Canadian cattle at 9c to 9½c; sheep at 10½c, and lambs at 12c.

Santiago Hero in Limbo-An Overcoat Thief Admits His Guilt.

One of the heroes of Santiago is badly in need of $5. He is a member of the Thirteenth New York Volunteer Infantry, and was spending his furlough at his old home in this city. He was in the police court this morning, and pleaded guilty to a charge of being drunk and disorderly. In default of the necessary $5 and costs, he must go down for 20 days. His furlough expires about the 15th inst., and the hero is afraid of court-martial. His name is Robert Blackwell. Blackwell was of old well known to the police here by reason of his bibulous habits.

James Wilson, alias Samuel opencer, pleaded guilty this morning to a charge of simple stealing, and to one of housebreaking and stealing. From the Central Hotel he stole an overcoat valued at $12, belonging to Allan Studholm, of Toronto. And on Tuesday afternoon he broke into the house of Wm. Angus, 520 Princess avenue, and slole a watch and guard valued at $12, and $1 25 in money. He was remanded on both charges till next Wednesday, when he will be tried for carrying a loaded revolver. Wilson claims Hamilton as his home, but in answer to Magistrate Parke, admitted that he formerly lived in Toronto, where, under the name of Samuel Spencer, he was given six months in the Central for assault. Wilson pawned the stolen articles for $2. The arrest was made by P. C. Green. The prisoner is only 24 years old. An unusual and exciting scene occurred Tuesday morning in St. Peter's Cathedral, when Mrs. Clara Heammill, an elderly woman, who lives near the gas house, assaulted Mrs. Mary Hayes, of Mill street, bruising her face and blacking her eyes. Mrs. Heammill was in the police court this morning, charged with assault. The case was continued for one week. A friend of Mrs. Heammill's called at the police station and offered to give ball, but the offer was refused. The police believe Mrs. Heammill is insane, and will have her examined for insanity by a physician. Wm. Davidson, a Rectory street teamster, was up this morning, charged with malicious destruction of property. He is accused of heaving a paving stone through a window of car barn on the evening of Saturday, Oct. 29. The case was set for trial next Wednesday, when a number of similar clases will be disposed of. Charles M. Campbell, drunk and disorderly, was discharged.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

The writers on the big city dailies have come out with some good things about Bobby Gaylor in "McSorley's Twins," which he will present at the Grand tonight. Bobby is an excellent comedian, and deserving of all kinds of success.

POWERFUL SOUTHERN PLAY— "AT PINEY RIDGE."

"At Piney Ridge," another of those plays that are destined to lay the foundation for the distinctive American House for a limited engagement of one night, Saturday, Nov. 12, and matinee. This play has the true flavor, and truthfully depicts the languorous life of the sunny south without any of the cheap stage exaggeration that has ruined many so-called southern plays. The character of Jack Rose, the hero of the drama, is well told, and while Mr. Higgins has properly given him-self in this part the lion's share of the interest and opportunities he has not submerged the other characters, but has so distributed the material that every personage in the drama has at some time an excellent chance to produce effects.

"THE GEISHA" FRIDAY NIGHT. The greatest of all comic operas, "The Geisha," and "The Mikado," are a pair to draw to when one wants solid enjoyment, melody, light and airy, highly colored scenes with geisha girls and mousmees and other delightful accessories of the real and the stage Japan. "The Geisha" forces com-parlson with "The Mikado," primarily because the latter is the best known, and was such a favorite all over the country. Light and airy in its music and dialogue, "The Geisha" has not the kind of tunes that stick in obscure corners of the memory and force one to hum them at odd moments and moments that are not odd. But, after all, "The Geisha" is a delightful addition to the ranks of the light opera successes. The lyrics of the opera are in the care of good singers, and an enjoyable evening's entertainment is an assured fact.

A PERSISTENT SWEETHEART

A Romance Begun in Germany Has Its Ending in Chicago.

Chicago, Nov. 10 .- A romance, which had its origin in the fancies of a 14year-old girl in Druisburg, Germany, has been brought to a happy ending by the marriage of Ethel Schwann, of this city, to Cecil Redlinger, of Rockport, Ill.

in the town of Druisburg. He was years older than she, and scarcely noticed her, but she adored him. When he left his home in Germany to come to America he was in ignorance of her devotion. She followed him to Amcrica five years later, and since her arrival has been living with her sister in Chicago.

During all these years she had heard nothing of Redlinger beyond the mere information that he had settled in Illinois, and was engaged in farming Her early affection was still alive, and after her arrival in America she began a search for the companion of her childhood. He was eight years her senior, and the promise of "undying love" had not been spoken.

Miss Schwann's knowledge of the American States was very meager when she left home, and she found her search beset with great difficulties. For six months all her inquiries were made in vain. She could learn of no Carl Redlinger, a farmer, who had ever lived at Druisburg.

Then she hit upon a rather extra-ordinary scheme, through which she pursued her quest. She wrote a letter, addressed it to Carl Redlinger, Elgin. On the outside of the envelope she addressed it to Carl Redlinger, Bloomington, with the same instruction on the envelope. Every day she wrote one or more of these letters, all addressed to Carl Redlinger, and each directed to a different town. She sent those letters to almost every town in Illinois, where there is a postal station. All but eight or ten were returned to her. But while the uncalled for letters were pouring back the longedfor result finally came.

One of the random shots sent out over the state had reached the mark for which it was intended, and the young woman's quest was ended. Carl dation for the distinctive American Redlinger, the one Ethel had learned play, will be given at the Grand Opera to admire years ago in Germany, had for five years lived on a farm near one of her circulars to this place, copying the name from the atlas, and one day last July Redlinger received it. Redlinger wrote to her, and followed his letter with a visit. The wedding that took place at the Schwann residence tells the rest of the story, and the young people left today for their farm at Rockport.

CORSET STEELS

With dealers the buying of corsets is largely a matter of confidence, at least as far as the true quality of the boning is concerned.

In order that rusting may be guarded against each bone or steel should be covered before being placed and sewn in position in the corset. In ordinary corsets this is rarely done. The best corsets are fully boned, the cheaper ones are only partly so. Ordinary corsets are almost invariably boned with cheap, poor-quality steel, and its cheapness manifests itself in brittleness. In first-cla corsets specially-tempered, highquality spring steel is used, the better the steel the lighter the corset, for in quality is strength. Never buy a light weight corset unless you buy the famous French, tailor-cut, hand sewed corset, the

from dogs and domestic animals generally. It heals open sores, boils, raw bruises and all skin troubles. Acts like a tonic, putting the coat in splendid condition, and leaving the animal refreshed and in good spirits.

"A short time ago a pup was given to one of the junior members of our family, and upon investigation it was discovered that the pup was accompanied by some live stock in the shape of lice. He was continually whining and would scratch his hide until it became raw in places, and he could not be quiet for five minutes. I procured a bottle of your Persiatic Dog Wash, and after two applications as per directions, he was entirely free from his tormentors and has not been troubled since. It is without doubt a valuable remedy, and I take great pleasure in testifying to its efficiency as a vermin destroyer, and also as a cure for sores peculiar to the canine family."
