PROMINENT YOUNG INGERSOLL WOMAN DIES IN WOODSTOCK

INGERSOLL, March 7.—The death of Miss Dora Hunter, one of the town's most popular young women, occurred this afternoon from pneumonia, which followed influenza. Deceased, who was a nurse-in-training, had only been ill since Sunday. She entered the training school in January, 1918.

Miss Hunter was a graduate of Alma College, St. Thomas.

She was a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Mitchell, Canterbury street, where she resided. The remains were brought here this evening. Funeral will be held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Mitchell, to the Ingersoll Rural Cemetery.

INTER-SCHOOL DEBATES. Arrangements have been completed for the final debate in the inter-school "Boys' and Girls' debating series. The boys of the Ingersoll Collegiate will meet those of the Woodstock Collegiate in that city on March 14, for possession of the St. Catharines shield.

The subject will be "Resolved that trade and labor unions are detrimental to the best interests of society." On March 21, Ingersoll Collegiate Institute girls will meet St. Thomas girls here.

"WHY I WOULD NOT MARRY" A MORALITY PLAY AT PATRICIA

High-Class Photodrama Showing Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Sacrificed on the auction block of matrimony to satisfy a greedy father is the vision seen by a young and beautiful girl in "Why I Would Not Marry," a powerful morality play produced by William Fox, which will come to the Patricia Theatre for three days, commencing Monday next.

How this ravine beauty avoids matrimonial pitfalls, escapes an existence of misery, saves her soul and achieves happiness constitutes the basis of the picture. The story is told in an entertaining and unique manner through the working out of a novel idea. The girl has four suitors whom she considers about equally desirable, but learns she accepts any of them that her life would be one of misery with any of them.

"SIS HOPKINS" AT THE PATRICIA TODAY FOR THE LAST TIME

Mabel Normand Appearing in Greatest Photocomedy of the Age.

The village school has ever been a fertile field for playwrights. Some of the most amusing scenes ever depicted on the stage have taken place in "the little red school house." In a play like "Sis Hopkins," the New York Goldwyn picture in which Mabel Normand is presented at the Patricia today for last time, it goes without saying that the author, director and star have concentrated their efforts at funmaking in what passes for the centre of education in New Harmony.

As it happens, the opportunities for amusing moments are greater than are usually found. The school is not the regular kind to be expected in a small town, but a pretentious "finishing" institution where well-to-do farmers' daughters are given polish. It goes without saying that some of the raw material enrolled at the school is almost as funny as it is when Miss Peck over has given it her stamp of approval and sent it out into the world.

CHARLIE CHAPLIN in "The Hula Hula Dance," one of his best comedies, showing at the Patricia on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday next.

PAULINE FREDERICK in "The Woman on the Index" Goldwyn Pictures

PAULINE FREDERICK IN HER NEW PLAY COMING TO PATRICIA

"The Woman on the Index" Showing Thursday, Friday and Saturday Next.

Pauline Frederick in "The Woman on the Index" is presented by Goldwyn at the Patricia Theatre next Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Audiences are promised no end of suspense, thrills and big surprises.

Sylvia Martin is a poor girl who is driven from home by the greed and heartlessness of her father. Finding in a doorway, she is pitied by a passer-by, a man, who carries her into a warm room. It is the rendezvous of a band of crooks of which he is the leader. In time Sylvia marries him, ignorant of his status. By accident she learns the truth when she overhears the crook discussing a successful "job." At this juncture the police enter and Sylvia's husband shoots himself. She is accused of his murder and is held as an accessory in the robbery. Eventually she is freed and subsequent events bring about her marriage to a man who has no knowledge of her past.

NORDHEIMER'S SEVENTY-NINTH ANNIVERSARY and YEAR-END SALE

FOR ELEVEN MONTHS in the year, the House of Nordheimer adheres to its policy of price maintenance—not only on Instruments of its own make, but also on those it controls and handles. But the eleventh month—March—is set apart as a Grand Opportunity Month for our patrons.

Just as it is our policy to standardize and stabilize prices throughout the balance of the year, so it is our policy to include with our accumulated stock of used Pianos certain Special Offerings in New Instruments. This year we go a bit further than usual—making three splendid reduced-price offerings—the Lansdowne, the Doherty and the Victor.

As for the used pianos listed, their character is evident from the names they bear. Each has been carefully renewed—some are to all intents and purposes as good as new.

The Lansdowne This splendid NORDHEIMER-built instrument has not been heard of much in our advertising of late. That is because we were oversold, and war conditions prevented an increase in our manufacturing facilities. We are now able to produce these instruments in greater quantities, and to make our YEAR-END SALE the biggest event of the kind yet celebrated, we have decided to extend this heretofore unheard of opportunity to a few real judges of piano value. Built in the NORDHEIMER factory by NORDHEIMER craftsmen, on the LANSLOWNE scale. Exceedingly attractive in design, its superior finish is at once apparent to all. At its regular price, $425.00, the LANSLOWNE is an outstanding leader, unequalled in value. Our sale price for this instrument of rich and penetrating tone is..... $382.50

The Doherty This piano is manufactured by a house well and favorably known to Canadians for the past fifty years. The modern Doherty is an upright of attractive appearance, in a plain and artistic case. We are able to offer the Doherty in either mahogany or oak. A piano that regularly sells for $400, during our Year-End Sale at..... $345.00

The Victor The name is ours, and the instrument is manufactured for us. The name Victor is copyrighted by the House of Nordheimer, and the pianos bearing this name are made in conformity to Nordheimer ideas of piano value. Its durability is assured by the Nordheimer guarantee. Case of bungalow design—mahogany or oak. Regularly $340. Special Sale price..... $285.00

ONE ONLY PRINCESS PLAYER-PIANO—A beautiful instrument, in mahogany, with all modern player mechanism, complete expression and tone control devices. Ten Dollars worth of music, your own choice, and bench. Special Year-End Sale price..... $565.00

Used Pianos of High Merit at Tempting Prices

NORDHEIMER—Colonial design, beautifully figured case, one of our most expensive styles. Has been rented to a local clergyman for a short while. A piano that would suit the most critical musician. SPECIAL PRICE..... $385.00

HEINTZMAN & CO.—High mahogany case, one of their late models. Keys, action and case in perfect condition. Has only been used a few months. Absolutely as good as new. An exceptional bargain at..... $365.00

Square Pianos and Organs at Extraordinary Prices

STODART SQUARE PIANO—Small rosewood case, 7 1-3 octaves, good tone, a splendid piano for a beginner. Year-End Sale Price..... $35.00

CHAMBERS, NEW YORK—Octagon legs, beautiful case and not too large, 7 1-3 octaves, ivory keys, excellent tone, a fine practice piano..... $80.00

HEINTZMAN & CO.—This piano is an exception. The case is a work of art. The tone unequalled in this type of piano. Very special price..... $90.00

THREE SIX-OCTAVE PIANO-CASED ORGANS, in Al condition, by reliable makers. One of these almost new. Four choices at $50. Several others 5 and 6 octaves, ranging in price from $10 to $19. Very lenient terms may be arranged.
