Waldo is a strong favorite for the Kentucky Derby, but Geo. Reit's soit Fighting Bob is showing so much improvement in his triels at Churchii Downs that he is likely to have strong support. C. L. Harrison and a party of friends are going to Louisville in a private car to see Waldo under colors in the time-honored classic. Mr. Harrison is one of the engineers who mapped out the Pennsylvania tunnels. He owns Waldo, and thinks he will develop into another Fitz Herbert. Waldo will begin his eastern campaign probably at Belmont Park.

Don Valley League Opening.

Everything is ready for the grand opening of the Don Valley League, which plays all its games in Riverdale Park, on Saturday, when Ald. John O'Neil, assisted by W. A. Henderson, will conduct the opening ceremonies, and Umpire Eddy Barnes will officiate as unpure. At 2 p.m. the LC.B.U. play the Loundes, and at 4 p.m. the Gerrards will tackle the champion Carltons. All Saints have a bye.

An idea of the popularity of this league may be gained by the fact that the following gentlemen in order to encourage the boys to play clean fast baseball have (unsolicited) donated the following prizes to be competed for? Silver cup, by Mr. Gardiner of Riverdale Park parlors; beautiful gold fobs, by Ald. John O'Neil; gold medals for the best batter; handsome silver medal for best base runner, presented by Percy McBride, and an order for a bat for the first home run, donated by Mr. W. Barchard; also the beautiful trophies given by the league.

The executive extend a hearty invitation to all fens who enjoy good clean baseball untainted by any rowdyism.

Bill Murray Gets His Money. PHILADELPHIA, April 26.—The claim of Wm. J. Murray against the Philadelphia Baseball Club was adjusted here today, at a meeting between Thomas J. Lynch, president of the National League, former Manager Murray and officials of the local club. After the conference Murray gave out the following statement: "I simply want to say that the new owners of the Philadelphia Baseball Club have settled with me on terms entirely satisfactory. President Lynch and I came over from New York this afternoon and met President Fogel and Judge Elliot at the club's office, and in less than half an hour arrived at an amicable settlement. The new owners have dealt fairly with me and that is all I have to say."

The terms of the settlement were not made public.
