Had Burns made enemies of the members he would not have been invited to the Bettinson benefit. The tollowing is from The London Sports-

Manager Bettinson took his annual benefit at the National Sporting Club What the popular manager Burns the world's champion, who was accompanied by Billy Neail, his manager. Besides, three important contests and exhibition bouts between amateur and professional champions

There was a buzz of excitement when Mr. Bettinson sprung his surprise packet on the audience. Into the ring vanited Charley Wilson of Notting Hill, and some minutes elapsed ere his opponent made an appearance. This was no other than Tommy Burns, the champion of all champions. "Gentlemen." said Mr., Bettinson, after stepping into the ring, "I have much pleasure in introducing to you this evening Tommy Burns. He was in the building, and kindly volunteered his services." Needless to say, the cheering which followed the announcement was great. Before proceeding with the bout Burns said:

"Allow me to thank you one and all for the hearty reception you have just given me. I take this opportunity of thanking the members of the National Sporting Club for their many over their champion. I also seize this opportunity of complimenting Moir on his display against me. A gamer fellow I never met, and I wish him every success in the future."

The bout which followed was remarkable, says The Sportsman, for the cleverness displayed on both sides, cleverness displayed on both sides, and the exchanges thruout were of the speediest character. When the M.L.A. Marmora; hon. second vice-press fistic celebrities vacated the ring they

The National baseball commission has just handed down a decision by which Pitcher Campbell, who was blacklisted by the National Associablacklisted by the National Association of Minor Leagues not long ago, is reinstated and awarded to the Cincinnati Club. George Tebeau, owner of the Louisville American Association Club, claimed that the player was still under contract to him, and that Clincinnati could not secure a valid transfer of Campbell's release from the Tristate League, to which he jumped. On the other hand, Campbell asserted that could not secure a valid transfer of Campbell's release from the trising Montreal in a somewhat slow and had not kept his part of the contract, and that he was therefore no longer bound by its terms when he entered the service of the Harrisburg management. The commission's ruling is regarded as a baseball marplot.

Ladylike Game at Pittsburg Lyceum Beats P.A.C. 6 to Sexsmith Makes Impartial Referee - Hockey Schedule for the Week - Notes of the Game.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 28.-(Special.)-The Lyceum and P.A.C. teams played their cheduled game here to-night and while it was not characterized by any partieither side, it was a very enjoyable game, some off sides, not many, and no roughness at all till near the middle of the second half, when Charlton got two minutes for a hard check. It was a very pleasant, ladylike game, with Lyceum having very much the better of it. The teams were fairly well matched with the exception of Higgins of the P.A.C., who is very weak and will have to be replaced. He made the forward line weak, which caused the defence to play out to assist and when Lyceum got going they scored. Lyceum scored two in about a minute after play started and added three more in the first half, while P.A.C. managed to sneak ore past Ross, a long shot by Forrester. P.A.C. did better in the last half, but could not get the disc past Ross, while Lyceum added another to their score, the finish being 6 to 1. While the game was not lightning hockey by any means, the crowd enjoyed it as either side, it was a very enjoyable game, while the game was not lighting notary by any means, the crowd enjoyed it as it was entirely free from the slashing that has predominated and spoiled most of the preceding games. Sexsnith of the bankers refereed and had the game well in hand all the time and I heard no complaints. There was no room for any. The
