THE CONVICT'S DAUGHTER

The Convict's Daughter at the York Theatre drew a fair audience last night and that those present thoroughly enjoyed the play as evidenced by the applause given at the end of each act. The character of Weary Willie, by A. S. Bryan was good; his interpretation of the tramp has very seldom been equalled here. Grace Vinton as Susan, the housemaid, was full of life. The scenic mountings were excellent and special mention might be made of the prison scene where a fast train passes across the stage.

A DRUG STORE FAKIR CAUGHT

He Had a Smooth Scheme to Pick up Easy Money From Local Pharmacists.

For some time the city druggists have been made the victims of a very clever game but which was in all probability played yesterday for the last time in this city.

Yesterday afternoon Detective Killen located John Wickham on Dock street as the result of complaining druggists, who informed the police that Wickham, who is a P. E. I. man had been bringing in patent medicines to the stores at the same time stating that he wished to return same. Having obtained the cash he would leave the easy druggist. Yesterday afternoon the detective got his man and after having him identified by a druggist, Mr. Killen did not handoff his man but permitted him to walk by his side. Everything went well until they got to Charlotte street then Wickham bolted and ran like a track horse. He was too speedy for the detective, who, however, gamely pegged it down North Market St. Officer Wilkins, who was on the beat and happened to see the escape and he passed the detective at a terrific rate but when he reached the corner of Germain and King Sts. it was seen that he was nearly all in. He then did the running and the detective did the hollering. Someone got in Wickham's way and hauled him by the coat-tail, turning him around. Then "Billy" White jumped on his man.

Messrs. A. C. Smith & Co. Geo. A. Moore, M. V. Paddock, E. C. Brown, E. J. Mahoney, Geo. Hobben and Thomas J. Durick were visited by the slick one.

ELIJAH WAS SEEN? THINGS

Dowie Tells of Separation of His Body and Soul-He Has a Vision.

CHICAGO, June 15.-John Alexander Dowie, identifying in the hearing of the City controversy in Judge Landis' court this afternoon, told of an instance when his body and soul became separated and in his spiritual being he distinctly saw his own dead body lying beneath a shroud. It occurred, he said, when he was fighting the liquor traffic in Melbourne, and was regarded by him as a divine warning that he was about to die.

At the same time, while alone in the tabernacle, came a voice warning him to "Arise and go."

"I went," said Dowie, "and while on my way home I heard an explosion. The next day I found that my enemies had tried to kill me with dynamite. The back of the tabernacle had been wrecked." Dowie denied that he had ever represented himself as Elijah the Restorer, subsequently qualifying the statement by saying that he told his people that "He came in the spirit and power of Elijah." On Sept. 18, 1904, he said, he proclaimed himself as the "Elijah, Apostle," but when pressed for an explanation as to how he received the commission he replied: "I can't tell you."

CLASH OVER SHOW GROUND

Halifax Exhibition Association and Monaghan Bros. at Law Over Land Expropriation.

HALIFAX, N. S., June 16 (special).-There was a clash in the vicinity of the exhibition grounds last night over the expropriation of the Monaghan property for Dominion exhibition purposes. The commission offered $4,000 for the property, but the Monaghan Bros. did not want to sell. The money was paid into court and the expropriation will be fought. Yesterday afternoon, Hall, manager of the exhibition went to take possession of the expropriated property, and he called two or three workmen to go on the grounds with him. But one of the Monaghan brothers was on the lookout, saw them coming and proceeded to the boundary line to meet the attacking party. The exhibition workmen deserted the field and it was all up to the manager of the exhibition, Mr. Monaghan. Just what happened then is difficult to state, as there were very few spectators and the principals, in view of the lawsuit now pending, are saying nothing. There was a clash, however, and the defence is still holding out on the grounds.
