

ILLUSTRATED ANGLES ON PEOPLE AND EVENTS IN WORLD NEWS

ONE GLOVE CAUSED IT ALL

The motorman of a New York elevated train dropped his glove just as he was speeding round a high corner during the crowded rush hour. While he stooped to pick it up, his train crashed into another train standing still. The picture shows how the wooden cars telescoped. Thirty-eight were injured.

THE PASSING OF OLD TRINITY

Above—Chapel of Old Trinity, Toronto, a landmark familiar to graduates in all parts of Canada, which will soon be razed. Below—left to right, Canon Ferguson, Canon Spencer and Canon Broughall at the last service and garden party of Old Trinity College.

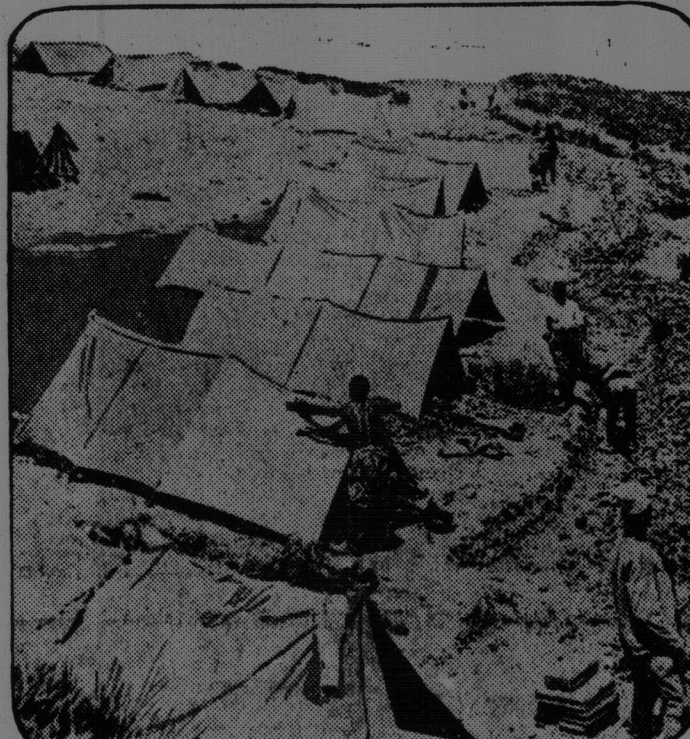

Mrs. Rose Harris, an inmate of the Orthodox Jewish Home for the Aged at Cleveland, was born in 1819, but when her 100th birthday came she danced the ancient Hungarian dance—the Czardas—with more spirit than any other inmate present. Incidentally, she was still dancing when the others tired, had quit.

DENISON BROTHERS AT FAMILY MEMORIAL

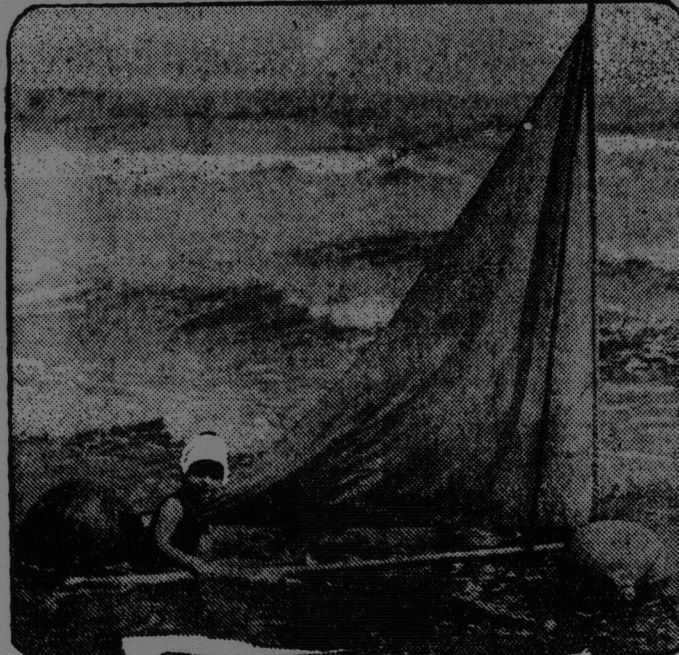

Three brothers of the late Col. G. T. Denison, caught by a photographer at St. John's cemetery following the funeral service. The brothers, General Septimus Denison, Admiral John Denison and Col. Charles Denison are standing at the foot of the memorial erected to the members of the Denison family who died in the Great War.

WARFARE IN AFRICA

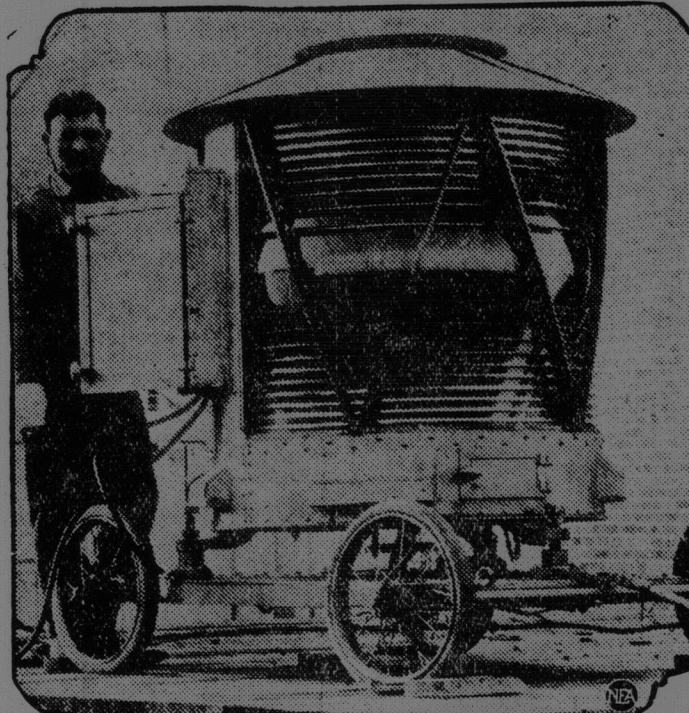

French troops fighting the Rif troops of Abd el Krim must contend with such rough and barren terrain as this upon which an outpost is pitching shelter tents and digging entrenchments. Rifles are stacked back of the tents to the left while the men make camp.

THE BUBBLE BOAT

A skeleton craft with three large rubber balloons as the sustaining element, make up the bubble boat, the latest fad at Atlantic City, N. J. A sail rigged to the one mast provides motive power. Ethel Elaine Jacques, 4, is the captain shown piloting the novel craft through the breakers.

POWERFUL LIGHT FOR AIR MAIL

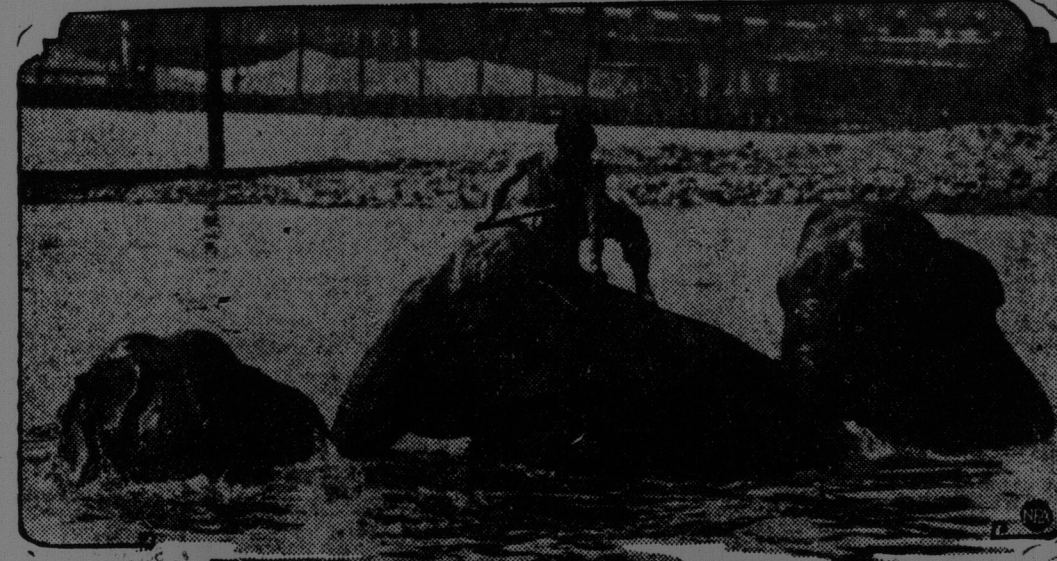

The most powerful lights in the world are being installed on all the air mail fields from New York to San Francisco. The lamps are a special 500,000,000 candle power B. B. field flood light, and their projected light covers an area of half a mile. You can read a newspaper two to three miles from it, and from the air it is visible for 75 miles.

PILGRIMS SEE RARE SIGHT IN ROME

A scene of matchless beauty was spread before the eyes of thousands of Holy year pilgrims in Rome when St. Peter's was illuminated for the first time since the fall of the temporal power in 1870. Thousands of torches provide the light. Huge crowds are seen in the square.

THE OLD SWIMMING HOLE

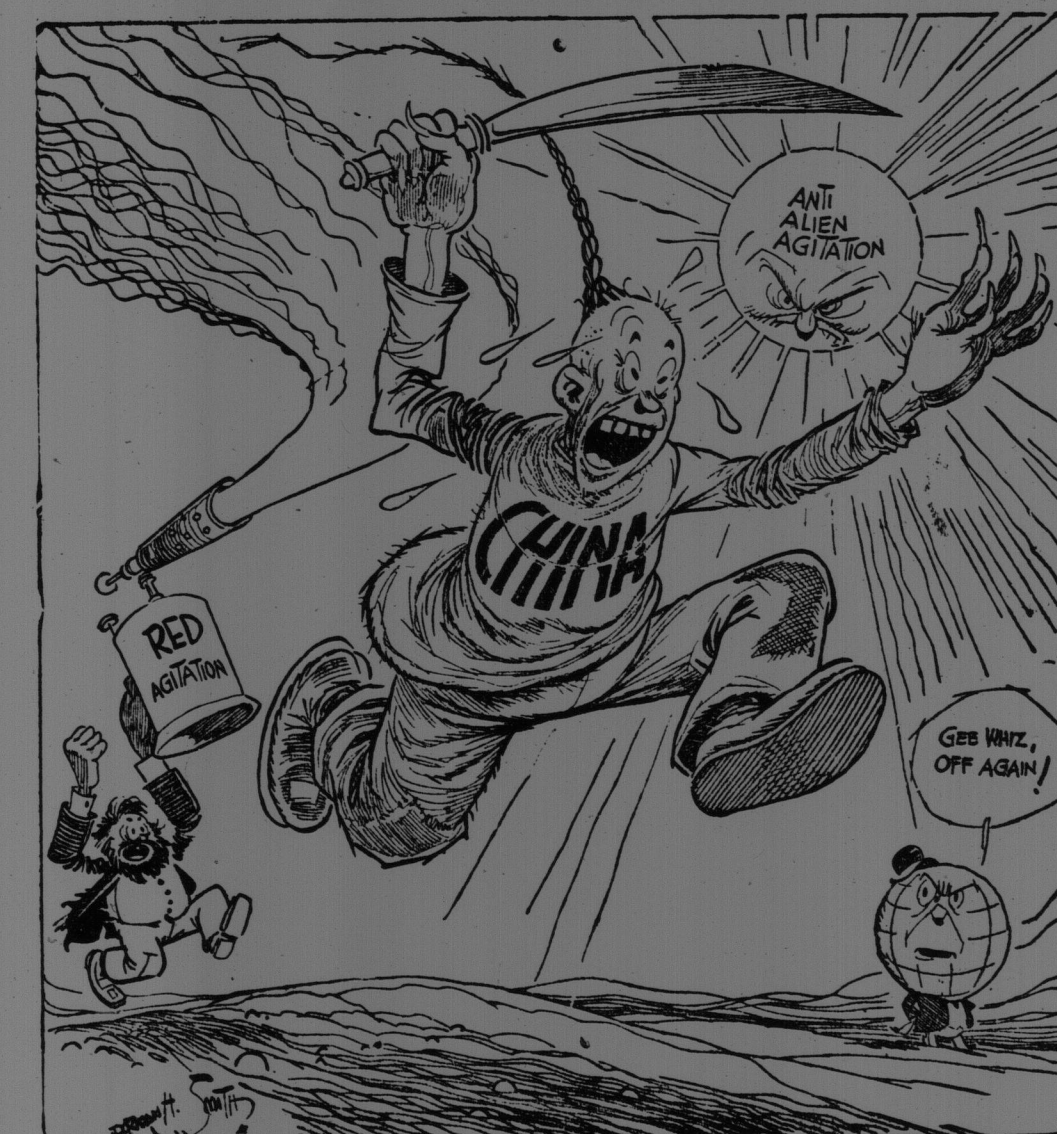

Looked mighty good to these circus elephants who spend most of their time off duty in the cool waters of the ocean at Boston. In fact, it was a tough job for the trainer to get them to consider any duty at all while the hot spell lasted.

THE LAST "DAISY CHAIN"

The most historic fete of the graduation day exercises at Vassar College, Poughkeepsie, N. Y., "The Daisy Chain," is to be abolished, according to reports from the campus. But this year's celebration was held in all the glory of beauty and flowers. The photo shows the "Daisy Chain" which headed this year's pageant.
