

THE EVENING TIMES-STAR, SAINT JOHN, N. B., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1925

Weddings

McMurry-Outhouse.
Miss Viola Mae Outhouse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvard L. Outhouse, of Tiverton, N. S., and Captain Hugh McMurry, son of Mr. and the late Mrs. John McMurry, of Margaretsville, N. S., were quietly married at the parsonage by the Rev. H. A. Goodwin on Tuesday, November 3.

The bride wore a becoming gown of powder-blue crepe de chine, with trimmings of sand and gold and carried a shower bouquet of pink carnations. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Perrett, 31 High street, after which the happy couple left on an extended wedding trip. The bride's traveling suit was of autumn brown cloth trimmed with fox and velvet hat of the same shade. The groom's gift to the bride was a string of pearls.

Wiggett-Sundstrom

The marriage of Charles Thomas Wiggett of East Lake, C. B., and Hazel Sundstrom, of Lowell, Mass., was quietly celebrated at the residence of the officiating clergyman, Rev. G. B. Trafton, 229 City Road, on Thursday, November 5.

AFTERNOON ENJOYED.

In the Germain street Baptist institute yesterday afternoon the Sunday school cradle roll reception was held with 74 mothers and babies attending and the event was greatly enjoyed.

King Cole TEA
FILL OF QUALITY
"You'll like the flavor"

Mrs. W. C. Cross, superintendent of the cradle roll, was the general convener for the entertainment and was assisted by Mrs. L. W. Simms, Miss Genevieve Butler, Miss Helen Marr and Miss Estelle Vaughan, superintendent of the primary department of the school. The following program was given: Piano solo, Helen Willet; welcome recitation, Roberta Duval, and duets by Evelyn Bonnell and Jean Kitchen. Refreshments were served to the mothers and the small folk.

Social Notes of Interest

A subscription bridge, for the benefit of the Grenfell Mission at Labrador, was given on Wednesday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. D. D. Robertson, Robeson. About 50 guests embraced the opportunity to subscribe to this very worthy object. Prizes were won by Mrs. Mortimer, Mrs. Vroom, Mrs. Frederick C. Jones and Mrs. Cannell. Among those who attended from the city were Mrs. Walter White, Mrs. J. Roy Campbell, Mrs. Laurence MacLaren, Mrs. Willie Vassie, Mrs. J. Lee Day, Mrs. G. Ernest Barbour, Mrs. Frederick L. Jones, Mrs. Courtlandt Robinson, Mrs. Heber Vroom, Mrs. Thomas Bell, Miss Helen Sidney Smith, Miss Jean Angus, Miss Edith White, Miss Frances Stetson and Miss Mabel Gilbert.

Miss Zela Lamoreaux was hostess at a small but nevertheless enjoyable tea at her residence, Sydney street, on Wednesday afternoon in honor of the debutante, Miss Alice Lockhart, West Saint John. The artistically arranged tea table with bowl of yellow chrysanthemums in the centre was presided over by Mrs. Sidney Jones, assisted by Mrs. J. K. Farrer, Miss Huiola Dykeman and Miss Doris Murray.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Macaulay, who have been staying with Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Macaulay since their return from Hudson Heights, are taking up their residence at 767 Landsdowne Avenue, Westmount, at the end of the week. Mrs. Macaulay was formerly Miss Althea Hazen, daughter of Sir Douglas and Lady Hazen, Saint John.

Mr. Gilbert D. Upham, Lakeside, celebrated his eighty-fourth birthday on Friday, October 30. Relatives and friends gathered to extend their good wishes and throughout the day telegrams and telephone messages of congratulation were received from members of his family, who were unable to be present. Those present from outside points were Mr. and Mrs. George Fowler, Halifax; Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Sherwood, Upham; Mr. and Mrs. Silas McCully, the Misses McCully, Upham; Mrs. J. H. Baird, the Misses Baird and Master Gordon Baird, of Sussex. The afternoon was spent in social intercourse, several musical numbers being enjoyed by these present.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Blake are being congratulated on the arrival of a little son at their residence, 55 Seely street.

Mrs. Thomas Harrison, who has been the guest of Mrs. James McAvity, Carville Hall, for two weeks, has returned to her home in Fredericton.

Mr. Walter Burke, who spent a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Burke at Moncton, has returned to the Lancaster Military Hospital.

Miss Molly Pratt, of Hartland, was the honor guest at a delightful birthday party held on Wednesday evening in the Y. W. C. A. residence in King street.

GETS DIVORCE

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 6.—Mrs. Lillian M. Cannefax, of St. Louis, yesterday obtained a divorce from Robert L. Cannefax, of New York, suspended National three cushion billiard champion, on the ground of desertion. The divorce was granted on Mrs. Cannefax's cross bill to her husband's suit for divorce, also alleging desertion. Her request for alimony was not granted. They were married in 1911. They have no children.
