Says Boy Threw It.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 21—A ten-year-old boy threw the pop bottle which struck "Whitney" Witt of the New York Americans in the forehead in last Saturday's baseball game with St. Louis, according to Joseph Walsh, deputy United States district court clerk. Mr. Walsh was in the right field crowd and said he saw the boy hurl the bottle and disappear in the crowd.

Indians Get Smith.

pitcher, has been transferred to the Cleveland club of the American Baseball League, according to an announcement made by Charles H. Ebbets, president of the Brooklyn club. Smith was asked on Smith and Manager Speaker claimed him, after all National League clubs had granted waivers.

He has been a member of the Brooklyn team since joining the club in 1918.
In the world's series in 1919 he lost a fourteen-inning game to the Boston Red Sox and in the world's series of 1920 he defeated the Cleveland Indians in Brooklyn, but was beaten by the Indians in Cleveland. In recent years he has been used by Manager Wilbert Robinson chiefly as relief pitcher for the Robins.

Me., yesterday. The 219 class was won by Mr. Dell, owned by Charles Cone of Calais, best time 2:17.4. T. J. Devlin, owned by E. G. McDonald of Fred-Groves of Milltown, best time 2:29.4.

Today's Grand Circuit.

yesterday's postponement because of rain, each day's Grand Circuit card has moved back one day and present indications are that the meeting will extend until Friday of next week instead of ending Thursday, as originally planned. Today's card will be featured by

THE NEW GOLF CHAMPION.

Mrs. Gavin of Hunterscombe, England, who won the Canadian women's golf championship at Toronto. The runner-up was Miss Alexa Stirling of New Hampstead, N. Y., who was a former champion of Canada.

The Hotel Southern stake for 211 paces, which it was predicted this morning would prove to be a three cornered battle between Robert Direct, Laura Forbes and Abbedale. Three other events are on the programme.

FOOTBALL.

St. Peter's Hold Practice.

The first practice of the season for candidates for the St. Peter's team was held last evening on the St. Peter's Park with a turn-out of former stars on hand.
Last night's practice was really more of an organization proceeding and real work will not start until this Saturday afternoon when a good workout will be given all the candidates for positions on the team. The veterans indulged in a little light work last night but concentrated themselves chiefly with kicking practice. The prospects are bright for a good team to represent the St. Peter's this fall.

RING.

Lynch in Ring Tonight.

New York, Sept. 21—Joe Lynch of New York, batman champion, will meet Jack Wolfe of Cleveland, in a fifteen-round contest here tonight. Lynch's title will not be at stake, as conditions for the bout require both to weigh in this afternoon at 122 pounds, four pounds over the bantamweight limit.

Tenderly and Irvine.

William H. Stacey of Bangor, Me., writing to the Sporting Editor of the Times says he understands that James McNulty, manager of Joe Irvine, a local boxer, claims the middleweight championship of the maritime provinces for his charge. Mr. Stacey wishes to dispute this on behalf of Eddie Tremblay, formerly of St. Louis, P. E. I. He says he stands ready to back up his claim by letting Tremblay meet Irvine at any time within the next three weeks and if the latter refuses to do so he should stop claiming the championship, which Stacey says he never won.

BILLIARDS.

Hoppe Is Twice Victor.

Willie Hoppe opened his season of billiard play at the Hoppe-Peterson Club on Broadway by beating Charles Peterson in an afternoon exhibition 300 to 123, and trimming the amateur star, Italian Rice, 306 to 61, in the evening.
Hoppe made a high run of 115 and averaged 87.5 against Peterson. The latter averaged 17.6-7. Against Rice the former champion had a high run of 97 and averaged 42.6-7. Rice had a high run of 27 and averaged 8.5-7.

GOLF.

Players Nose Broken.

While playing golf at Westchester Hills golf course, New York, Samuel K.
Fields of 84 Ridgewood avenue, White Plains, was struck with a golf ball. His nose was broken and his right eye injured.

The accident was an odd one. Mr.
Fields, with others, was playing when a ball driven with great force from an other point on the course struck him in the face. He fell to the ground and his companion carried him to the clubhouse.

MUNICIPAL GOLF.

(Winnipeg Tribune.)

Dame Fortune seems to smile on Winnipeg's municipal endeavors. The city has succeeded in big things, to wit in its hydro-electric system, in its Shoal Lake water supply and in its housing commission. It has succeeded also in quite other directions. One may without exaggeration describe the Municipal Golf Links, over which some 60,000 players have now passed in less than two years, as a huge success.

If the healthful pleasure, the reinvig-oration of mind and body, derived by the citizens from the municipal links could be expressed in kilowatts or horse-powers, the resultant figures would surely be amazing. For there is no tonic in the world like a round of golf.
Our municipal links are happily cir-cumstanced. They can be reached by a single street car fare. Situated in a beautiful part of old Kildonan they present a delightful combination of greensward, forest and stream. In some of the glades abutting on the river are carpet-like lawns where one could imagine oneself in the oldest corner of old England. A grassy bank runs along the terrain forming a pleasing break in the level stretches. And even the Canadian Pacific Railway's freight cut-off has been turned to profit in two exhilarating hazards.

Throughout the season the course has been well kept and constantly improved.
The Parks Board has contrived to create an air of good sportsmanship around the links and within and without the club house, the slogan of "The Public Be Pleased" has prevailed. Sympathetic touch with the private clubs of the city has been maintained by the visit to the links of their best players, amateur and professional.

Winnipeg's example has been an inspiration far and wide. This year Killarny, Birtle, Portage la Prairie, Kenora, Dauphin, Matlock, Sandy Hook and many other places, have made arrangements, or are making them, for the establishment of public links. On these links thousands of people are learning to play the ancient game.

BIG IRISH SINGER SAVES SITUATION.

How Talbot O'Farrell Calmed Fears of an Audience While London Was Being
Bombed—Another Incident

Montreal, Sept. 21—Talbot O'Farrell, universally known Irish singer and entertainer, is among the passengers returning to London on the Canadian Pacific "Empress of Scotland" this week. He left Liverpool in February of this year and has visited Australia, Java, Singapore, Hong Kong, Shanghai and other places in the Far East.

Mr. O'Farrell, a man of striking personality, is six feet or so tall, with a broad nose and a kind of a homesick Irishman, having been born in County Wicklow.

O'Farrell, like all other "stars" has had his early struggle. He recalls with meri-tment an occasion when in Greenock, Scotland, he was called upon to sing for a local club. "I had no songs with me," said O'Farrell, "so being Irish, went to the music store to buy a budget of Scottish songs, among them being 'Annie Laurie' and 'Kind Is My Mary.'" "Annie Laurie" I knew fairly well so decided to inflict that first, and having done so, was called upon to give Spain number two. "That's turn it" I said to myself, but there was nothing for it and I found myself in the throes of 'Kind Is My Mary,' getting as far as 'Kind, and gentle is she' when I could not remember another word. In my agony I happened to spot a burly Scotsman up in the gallery laughing, so I took advantage of the opportunity to remark: 'If you think I'm here to be laughed at you're wrong' and immediately walked off the platform." "What's the matter, what's the matter?" whispered the manager.
"Oh! nothing, I only forgot the words."

During the war, when London was being bombed by the German air-force, Talbot O'Farrell was booked to appear at the Wood Green Empire, London. It was on this occasion that O'Farrell was instrumental in avoiding what might have been a serious situation. The first house was nearly over, but the audience was taking little interest in the proceedings on account of the close proximity of falling bombs. Those inside were anxious to get out, and those outside wanted to seek shelter from flying fragments inside, and although the musicians had taken flight, O'Farrell walked on to the stage and addressed the audience thus:— "Ladies and gentlemen, don't worry, it's nothing, it's nothing, the trouble is over.
But the best of all, are the ones that will fall.
When there's peace in old Ireland once more.

"THE CALL OF HOME"

ing" and O'Farrell commenced all the most popular choruses he could think of which were taken up by the house in real earnest to the accompaniment of the thunder of flying shells and falling bombs and O'Farrell, by his courage, saved the situation. Later, O'Farrell received a letter from the directors of the theatre saying: "Your action was magnificent. It would have made those who were afraid, ashamed, and those who were not afraid, proud to think that they had a least one man who is one of them."

Talbot O'Farrell, it will be recalled, sang Irish songs to an audience of 10,000 from the balcony of Anderson's hotel in Fleet street, London, among them being his great hit, "The Tears of An Irish Mother." The crowd was so great that all traffic was held up for many hours and the outcome of it was that O'Farrell was fined £30 for obstructing the traffic.
"It was worth it though," said O'Farrell, "because it took place just at the time when the outlook in poor little Ireland was at its worst, and if I could do anything to bring peace to Ireland I would gladly do it."

The words of the chorus are as follows:—
There's the tears of an old Irish mother, As she sits by a vacant chair, There's the tears born of joy, as her wondering boy,
Returns to that fond mother's care, There's the tears of the angel for one who has strayed,
And the love when the trouble is over,
But the best tears of all, are the ones
that will fall,
When there's peace in old Ireland
once more.

RACING PREVENTED ON GRAND CIRCUIT BY MUDDY TRACK

BETTER WORD TODAY FROM HON. W. C. KENNEDY

Montreal, Sept. 21—A report given out by the superintendent of Royal Victoria Hospital this morning was to the effect that Hon. W. C. Kennedy, minister of railways, who is at present a patient in that institution, had spent a good night and was progressing favorably.

Frederickton Player Leaves.

Bill Dean, who was playing manager of the Frederickton Baseball Club at the end of the season which recently closed, has left for his home at New Bedford, Mass. He was the last of the imported players with the Frederickton team to leave and may come back again in November for a big game hunting trip.

Some preliminary negotiations have been carried on with Dean to return next spring, and the chances are said to be that he will play for Fred-erickton in 1923 unless he returns to the Hamilton club in the Michigan-Ontario League, with whom he was at the commencement of the past season. He is said to have been commissioned to look up sonderlings for Frederickton for next season, and he has already recommended a left-handed pitcher named Corey, who is said to, stand six feet one inch and will probably be signed.

"Duke" Connors Playing.

Word has been received from "Duke" Connors, who played first base for the Frederickton club during the past season, that he is playing again at home with one of the teams at Lowell, Mass., which has games booked until October 12. He is also said to be booked to return to Frederickton in 1923. Last season the Three Rivers, Quebec, team of the Eastern Canada League sought his services; the offer came early in July, but "Duke" turned it down.

A. to the Y. W. C. A. Boston, and are

FASHION-CRAFT CLOTHES

Listen in on this wire!

"WHERE did I get my new suit? I don't mind telling you. I couldn't see why I should pay my custom tailor so much more, when I could get the same clothes and styles as well or better tailored in Fashion-Craft. The fellows are all congratulating me, and I must say I never had more stylish or better made clothes—and of course at very much less than I formerly paid. Fashion-Craft looks to me the one best bet this season."

Exclusive, but not extravagant, it is well worth a few minutes of any man's time to examine the new Autumn and Winter styles at Fashion-Craft Shops and dealers throughout Canada.
The quality and workmanship have never been finer.
