HOW TO ECONOMIZE IN COAL

It Seems There is More Than Price to be Considered.

You buy coal solely to make heat. The more burnable material, the less waste or ash in a ton of coal, the more value. Ash and stone and clinker not only pollute but mean lost cost money to cart away. Most everybody knows this in a general way, but have you ever considered what it means in dollars and cents?

Generally speaking, Anthracite coal at the present time, costs about one cent a pound, is worth about 20 cents a ton. Anthracite coal with as little as 10 per cent waste would be an exceedingly good buy. This 10 per cent represents two hundred pounds to the ton, which on the basis of one cent a pound, is worth 20 cents. But low about the coal that has 20 per cent of ash and clinker to the ton. Four hundred pounds at present prices means $4.00 plus the expense and annoyance of its removal. There are many coals in St. John that contain two and three hundred pounds more ash to the ton than "Radio," and being sold at the same price. When you buy "Radio" hard coal, you buy coal with the least waste, the most of burnable matter. If you, the consumer, insist on present prices, means $4.00 plus the expense and annoyance of its removal.
