ACCOUNTS CORRECT SAYS COMMITTEE

Public Accounts Report Presented to Legislature Today—Recommendation re Government Cars.

(Official Report)

Fredericton, N. B., April 15—The House met at 11:30 o'clock.

Mr. Magee presented the following report of the committee on public accounts.

Your committee, to whom we referred the public accounts of the province for the year ending October 31st, 1921, beg leave to submit the following report:

Your committee have held ten meetings during this short session, and since the report of the comptroller general was presented, and have gone into the accounts as carefully as was possible in the time at their disposal.

Departmental officials have appeared before the committee from time to time and have explained the various items under discussion. Your committee find that the accounts are in proper order, the statement of revenue and expenditure for the fiscal year being clearly set out in detail. Your committee recommend that all cars in the service of the government carry a special tag or plate, indicating that such cars are in such service.

Your committee further recommend the payment of fifty dollars to J. B. Dickson, the secretary.

House met at 11:30 o'clock.

Mr. Magee, Geo. B. Jones, James K.
Pinder, R. K. Tracey, Reid McManus, L. M. Curran, W. E. Sculley.

Supernumeration Bill.

The House went into committee, with Mr. Hayes in the chair, and agreed to bills relating to partnership, to amend the corporations tax act 1920 to enable the St. John Board of School Trustees to issue debentures, to amend the Judic-ature Act and to amend an act providing for the creation of electoral districts.

Consideration was next given to a bill respecting the supernumeration of persons employed in the government service of the province. The measure was discussed by Hon. Mr. Michael, Mr. Pawcett, Mr. Richards, Premier Foster and Mr. Young.

Mr. Baxter said that while he did not oppose of some features of the bill, he would not oppose it to the extent of dividing the House. He would much prefer a supernumeration scheme to the dividing of which both the government and civil servants would both contribute.

Mr. Pawcett expressed himself as being strongly opposed to the principle of the bill.

Hon. Mr. Foster replied to the criticisms directed at the bill, and expressed the hope that the house would adopt it.
Adjourned at 1:15 o'clock.

OPIUM CASE IN BRUSSELS STREET

TRANSPORTATION FOR THE SAILORS STRANDED HERE

A few days ago the Navy League sent a telegram to Hon. C. C. Ballantyne, minister of marine, regarding Canadian stranded sailors sent to St. John recently kept at the Seamen's Institute. A telegram was received this morning by R. Armstrong, president of the Navy League from Hon. Mr. Ballantyne, reading: "While my department is not responsible for having seamen returned to St. John and is under no obligation to forward them to other points, instructions have been sent to J. C. Chesley to furnish transportation to their several destinations."

STRENGTHEN YOUR BUSINESS "MORALE"

Soldiers know what it means when an army's "morale" is shattered.

The fighting spirit is gone, the men invite defeat.

What is true of military forces is true of some industrial armies.

At the first serious jolt their morale weakens—hope flies, courage disappears—their fighting spirit is lost.

There is no place in business today for the "calamity howler." He is drawing salary or wages under false pretences. More distressing still, he is weakening the "morale" of other workers, and of the business itself.

Strengthen your business morale.

Take stock of your men as well as your goods.
Retain enthusiastic, profitable workers even at a temporary loss.

Venture into new fields for business.

Trade and Prosperity are interdependent. The sooner Capital, Labor and Management realize this the quicker will conditions improve.

HOSPITAL AID LADIES PRESENT NOVEL NUMBERS

Variety Entertainment at St. Vincent's Auditorium Draws a Full House.

What was conceded to be one of the the most amusing and unique entertainments staged in this city in years was presented in St. Vincent's Auditorium last evening under the auspices of the Catholic Ladies of the Hospital Aid.

The programme was diversified and had some bright and attractive offerings as well as highly amusing numbers. The spacious auditorium was crowded to capacity and hearty laughter and frequent outbursts of applause testified to the pleasure afforded the large and appreciative audience. The production was staged under the supervision of Mrs. A.
C. D. Wilson and much credit is due her for the success achieved. She was ably assisted by Mrs. M. L. LeLacheur, who directed the various choruses.

When the curtain was rung up Mrs.
L. A. Conlon appeared in the prologue and in her dainty and quaint costume, a speaking voice of charm, contrasted the dances, etc., of the present age with those of long ago and gave the audience and idea of the treat in store.

Members of the cast then appeared in picturesque costumes, which showed a marked contrast of those of the present day. While partaking of afternoon tea some of the members stepped forward, and rendered some old but still popular songs. "Auld Lang Syne" was rendered most acceptably by Mrs. L. A. Conlon.

This was followed by the opening chorus "In the Gloaming," "Maggie," "Coming Through the Rye," "Silver Threads Among the Gold," and "Love's Old Sweet Song" were sung by the chorus.

The next number was a fairly dance, which was very pretty. The little girls in their attractive costumes and graceful steps, drew the audience's attention to the production. The chorus, led by Dorothy McDonald as "two little butterflies," the scene ended with the awakening of the fairies, Gladys Conby, Florence Flood, Dorothy Hogan, Louise Tapley, Mary Wilson, Germaine Comeau, Audrey Morariety, Jeanette Fraser, Mary Kane, Margaret McCroin, Evelyn and Mar-saret Flood, who all joined in the dance.

Vida Waterbury, Bernice Mooney and Gertrude O'Neill then presented "Three Little Maids," a beautiful selection from "The Mikado." All three have excellent voices and their offering was a treat.

One of the most amusing features of the programme "The Spinsters' Convention" followed. As they appeared on the stage in their costumes of the long ago the audience was convulsed with laughter. In fact the merriment lasted so long that it was some time before they were able to get their meeting under way. The impersonations were ideal and the members of the cast played their characters so cleverly that the audience had difficulty controlling their mirth in order to hear the speaking lines of the comedy.

Their meeting was based on an all important question "How can we get a man?" Before the meeting adjourned William O'Connor appeared as a professor who had invented a rejuvenation machine. Miss Bernice Bordon one of the rejuvenations, sang a very pretty solo, Miss Alice Conlon, after giving a pleasing reading, and Mrs. Rhona Lloyd Winter a violin solo
