The Ring

Jack "Twin" Beat Mantell.

New York, Dec. 30.—Jack (Twin) Sullivan, of Boston, earned the popular decision over Frank Mantell, of Pawlucket, tonight in a ten round bout before the National Sporting Club. For the first seven rounds Mantell had a slight advantage, but Sullivan forced the fighting into the final round, hand, round, hand, Mantell at will. Both men were guilty of rough tactics and holding in the clinches. Beyond the reopening of Sullivan's damaged left eye, resulted in his "out" with "Porty" Pym, at Boston, which bled profusely throughout the fight, ending in contact with Mantell's glove in the third, neither man showed any sign of damage.

Wrestling

Tonight's Bout.

It is expected that there will be two or three good wrestling bouts at the Cecil theatre tonight. Dan MacDonald has agreed to throw three local men, the best in the city, in 45 minutes. He will also give an exhibition, showing all the holds and counter holds in wrestling. The three men who will go up against MacDonald are Dan Longley, Mike McEwan and an American. One or two others may also be taken on.
