"None of the officials of the company had anything to say about the robbery, other than that, as the Imperial Limited, which arived at Vancouver Wednesday morning, was steaming along near Furrer, a station eight miles east of Kamloops, last night, it was held up. "Mr. McQuarrie, a mail clerk, was interviewed by a local party over the long distance 'phone, and the main features of the hold-up were related. Mr. McQuarrie stated that after the train slowed down a arp came to the mail car door. His assistant was asleep at the time, so he stepped to the door, and on opening it was immediately confronted by three revolvers and three masked faces. Without any prelimiary remarks the men told him to shell out the valuables. The clerk complied with seemingly ready alacrity, but taking advantage of a rare opportunity, he pitched a well loaded bag, which was said to contain many thousands of dollars, into a seeret place, where it was fortunately overlooked. Another bag; which contained a few registered letters, was given to the robbers, who grabbed it

ROUGH VOYAGE OF THE CARNARVON BAY

Sailor who Fell From Aloft Was Killed - Prompt Rescue of Man

Captain Griffiths, of the British ship Carnarvon Bay, who was last here four years ago and has since been pretty much over all the world, is again in Victoria. The Carnarvon Bay arrived in the Royal Roads on Friday with general cargo for Victoria and Vancouver consigned to R. P. Rithet & Company of this city.

The vessel had an interesting voyage from Glasgow, but not devoid of some regrettable features. Among those was a fatal accident. A man fell from aloft to the deck of the vessel, sustainstant death. The unfortunate fellow was a seaman named Campbell. His from Ottawa. remains were buried at sea with impressive services conducted by Capt.

Griffiths. Another incident of the voyage happened about the 15th of January, when seaman fell overboard. In twenty-five minutes from the time the man fell overboard he was aboard

Capt. Griffiths reports that from about 6 south to 14 north he experienced unusually heavy thunder storms. These followed in rapid succession, and while he did not feel any of the earthquake shock which wrought such terrible destruction ashore, yet he thinks now, after hearing the reports of Frisco's desolation, that the disturband hurried away.
