the Scottish chamber of agriculture governor of the West of Scotland Agricultural College, holds the farm of Newton, near Glasgow, consisting of 400 acres of highly-rented land, devoted partly to ordinary farm crops, to crops of the market garden class, and to the production of milk. He is a strong advocate of the value of the periodic weighing and testing for fat of the milk of all cows, and supervises and summarises this work for the Highland and Agricultural Society. In 1885 he was selected for an inquiry into the butter trade of Holland and Denmark. In 1890 he was one of two farmers who were asked by the Canadian government to visit and report upon the country. He then spent three months between the Atlantic and the Pacific. Mr. Speir was dairy commissioner to the ssion (1893-7), and farmer membe of the royal commission on tuberculosis (1896-7.) He is a regular contributor to the "Transactions of the Highland and Agricultural Society." He was a member of the Scottish Agricultural Commission to Denmark in 1904 and to Ireland in 1906. He has studied the agriculture of most European countries W. Henderson, member of ex-ecutive committee of Scottish chamof Agriculture, farms land mostly arable, partly as owner and partly as occupier, and is a breeder of shorthorn cattle. He has taken a leading part in the movement for the free importation of Canadian Cattle, knowing that a resumption of the trade would not only be of material benefit to both countries, but would tend to strengthen the relationship of Canada and Britain in a very especial manner. Mr. Henderson believes Canadian cat-tle to be the healthiest in the world, and protests against their exclusion as live stock from the British market. He is a member of the executive committee of the "Free Importation of Canadian Cattle Association." Mr. Henderson played as a member of the Scoto-Cana-mark in 1904, and to Ireland in 1906. Angus Mackintosh, J. P., Alumnus of Edinburgh University, is land manager for the congested districts (Scotland) commissioners, with immediate charge of their large estates of Kilmuir and Glendale in Skye, and various set-tlements in the Highlands and Islands. On the Kilmuir estate there are in the hands of the commissioners several large farms, which are managed by Mr. Mackintosh pending their partition into small holdings. Formerly Mr. Mackintosh took part in the management of estates in Fifeshire, including the Earl of Crawford's estate of Balcaskie, and Sir Coutts Lindsay's estate of Leuchars. He was also manager for Lady Gordon Cathcart on her South Uist, Benbecula, and Barra estates. On the Highland estates in Mr. Mackintosh's charge were important folds of pedigree Aberdeen Angus and Highland cattle. Mr. Mackintosh acquired experience of the legal side of estate management in the office of Messrs, Tods, Murray & Jamieson, W. S., Edinburgh. Mr. Mackintosh has been a member of the Inverness county council and of a number of parish councils and school boards.

A. M. Prain is member of the Pertshire county council, and a member of the Scottish Agricultural mission to Denmark in 1904, and to Ireland in 1906. Mr. Prain has farmed on a large scale in the Carse of Gowrie, and has also managed a large sheep specialized in poultry keeping. Over
