Made Unacceptable,

Washington, Dec. 6.-The unexpected urn in the Cuban treaty negotiated at Havana has greatly surprised the officials here, who had every reason to believe, from Minister Squier's report, that the treaty was practically an accomplished fact. Now that it is to be submitted to the house of representatives at Havana with a nationalist majority supposed to be hostile to the establishment of closer relations with the United States, it is feared that the treaty is lost, for if not rejected to-night, it is almost certain to amended so as to make it unacceptable to the United States.
