I feel better and stronger in every way since taking it, and the annoying symptoms have disappeared." — Mrs. M. Godden, 925 Napoleon St., Fremont, Ohio.

Such annoying symptoms as heat flashes, nervousness, backache, headache, irritability and "the blues," may be speedily overcome and the system restored to normal conditions by this famous root and herb remedy Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. If any complications present themselves write the Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for suggestions how to overcome them. IMPROVEMENT IN CAR SITUATION

HOSPITAL SAVED BY PROMPT WORK

RETURNED MEN REFUSED TO LET AUSTRIANS LAND

KELOWNA. — Twentyseven Austrians and Hungarians who sought to settle in the Okanagan have decided to return to their former homes at Horizon, near Weyburn, Sask. The party was refused permission to stop off at any point in the district by an organized picket of returned men who guarded the gangplank whenever the Okanagan steamer stopped.

The party, which is composed of five men, seven women and 17 children, left Moose Jaw where they have been engaged in farming since before the war, last week, and with a carload of household goods, were bound for Kelowna with only enough money to cover their expenses of the trip. When the C.P.R. boat arrived at Kelowna from Okanagan Landing on Monday it was met by a delegation of returned men who refused to allow the party to land. Every effort was fruitless, so the travellers were returned to Okanagan Landing and remain as guests of the railway there. Similar attempts were made to land them at their destinations on Tuesday, but without avail. Now a squad of R.N.W.M.P. reached the scene and made the trip to Kelowna with the unwelcome newcomers. At Kelowna the mounted officers made a plea for the Hungarians and told the returned men of the consequences their action would bring.

As the soldiers then showed no disposition to make trouble, it was decided to have the Hungarians go ashore, but here a new difficulty arose, for, on account of the threats that they said had been made toward them, they would not land unless they were to have police protection, as they believe they will be attacked if the police left the scene. There was nothing to be done, so the party, now increased by the mounted police, returned to Okanagan Landing.
